Pittsburg State's Race, Adams State's McGurk Headline 2005 Football Gazette Preseason All-America Team

PITTSBURG, Kan. — Running back Germaine Race from defending NCAA Division II National Runner-up Pittsburg State University and linebacker Adam McGurk from Adams State University headline a talented list of 114 players who have been named 2005 preseason All-Americans by Don Hansen's Football Gazette.

Race, a junior from Warrensburg, Mo., rushed the ball 247 times for 2,213 yards (9.0 ypc) and 26 touchdowns in helping the Gorillas reach the NCAA-II National Championship Game and set all-time NCAA all division records for scoring (837 points), rushing (5,320 yards) and total offense (8,976 yards) during a 14-1 campaign. He earned first-team All-America honors from Football Gazette and shared Offensive Back of the Year accolades with Harlon Hill Award winner Chad Frieauf from Colorado School of Mines in 2004.

McGurk, a senior from Longmont, Colo., recorded 126 tackles (36 solo) with 20 tackles-for-loss and 7.5 quarterback sacks. He also logged one interception, seven pass break-ups and led NCAA-II with five forced fumbles, helping Adams State rank ninth in NCAA-II in scoring defense (15.2 ppg). McGurk was a first-team Football Gazette All-America selection in 2004, helping the Grizzlie to a 7-4 record.

McGurk leads a senior-dominated cast on the 2005 preseason All-America list, with 78 seniors, 28 juniors and seven sophomores making up the elite group. A total of 114 players representing all four geographic regions of NCAA Division II were named to the 2005 Football Gazette Preseason All-America team. Sixty players on the 2005 preseason list earned All-America honors from Football Gazette in 2004.

Four NCAA-II playoff qualifiers from 2004 – East Stroudsburg University, Edinboro University, the University of North Dakota and Pittsburg State University – led the way with four selections apiece on the preseason All-America team.

This marks the 18th year Don Hansen's Football Gazette, a recognized authority on small college football, has selected NCAA Division II All-America and preseason All-America teams.
