Where we are

The Northern Kentucky University softball team returns to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 2006 season, when the Norse came within a win of returning to the NCAA Championships for the second consecutive year.

How we got here

The Norse earned their spot in the NCAA Midwest Regional after winning the Great Lakes Valley Conference Tournament last weekend. The Norse were the No. 6 seed in the tournament and are the lowest seed to ever capture the GLVC championship. The Norse were victorious in one-run games against Indianapolis, Quincy and Lewis to run through the winners bracket before defeating Lewis again, this time in run-rule fashion, in the championship final.

Our head coach

Head coach Kathy Stewart is in her 11th season at the helm of the NKU softball program and has brought the Norse to six NCAA Tournaments, coming as close as third place nationally in 2005 after a 55-2 season. Stewart is 369-198 during her tenure managing the team and has claimed two GLVC titles and two NCAA regional crowns. Stewart has been named the GLVC Coach of the Year three separate times on her career.

Surging late

After taking a 5-4 loss to Kentucky Wesleyan midway through the regular season NKU appeared to be in jeopardy of missing the postseason for the third straight season. The Norse rebounded, however, taking seven of their final eight games of the regular season, four of those by run-rule, to finish sixth in the league and qualify for the GLVC Tournament.

GLVC Honors

Four NKU players were honored last weekend as All-GLVC players. Outfielder Shatona Campbell, designated player Sam DelVecchio and shortstop Jessica Farris all took second team honors while third baseman Cara Parker was named to the first team. Additionally, Farris was honored as the GLVC Freshman of the Year.

Ehlers aims for gold

April Ehlers has been dialed in as the Norse have advanced to postseason play. Ehlers took all four victories while throwing 24 innings of softball, giving up six runs on 13 hits while striking out 24 opposing batters and holding opponents to a .155 batting average.

Setting the power mark

Any notion of a previous home run mark at Northern Kentucky has been obliterated since the arrival of Rose Broderick and Ashley Gates, who are in a heated race for the all-time home run record. Gates has already smashed the single-season mark with 12 long balls this season as she continues to climb the ranks of power hitters at NKU.

Career home run leaders

1. Rose Broderick (2007-) 16
2. Krista Eldridge (1999-2002) 13
3. Rachele Vogelpohl (2003-06) 12
- Ashley Gates (2009-) 12
5. Kerry McKee (1998-2001) 10

Against the opposition

Over the course of the 2009 season the Norse have posted solid numbers against their opposition this weekend. Against Friday's opponent, Ferris State, the Norse posted a 5-0 victory on neutral ground in Kissimmee, Fla., to even the season series at a game a piece. Gates had a home run while Chelsie Roy threw a two-hit shutout against the then No. 7 team in the nation.

Against Lewis, NKU has posted a 4-0 record, including a pair of 1-0 victories, one coming in the regular season on a sacrifice fly by Cara Parker, the other coming when Amanda Smith scored on a passed ball.

The Norse have won both games against Saginaw Valley State this season as well, both coming in Florida at the Rebel Spring Games. NKU capitalized on some defensive miscues in taking a 4-2 victory in their first game, while sacrifice bunts were the order of the day as the Norse took a 2-1 extra-innings victory in the teams' second game against each other.
