On tap: The Greyhounds have advanced to the NCAA Midwest Super Regional at Saginaw Valley State in just their second postseason appearance in school history. Ulndy ran through the Midwest Regional last weekend, beating Wayne State 1-0, Missouri-St. Louis 3-0 and WSU again 6-4 to remain one of the final 16 teams in contention for the D-II title. The winner of this week's best-of-three series will pack their bags for Salem, Va. and the 2009 NCAA Division II World Series, along with the winner from the seven other Super Regionals taking place around the country.

Head Coach Melissa Frost-Fisher: Coach Frost-Fisher is in her fifth season as the skipper at Ulndy. She owns a 226-159 overall mark and a 156-105 record at Ulndy. Frost-Fisher has led the team to the GLVC tournament in each of her five seasons and has won 25+ games in each of those seasons, the only coach in school history to achieve either mark. She has made the only two NCAA appearances in the program's history.

Greyhounds in the NCAA tourney: Ulndy now has an all-time record of 5-2 in the NCAA postseason tournament with the only other appearance coming in 2008. The Hounds also opened that tournament with a battle against Wayne State, falling 1-0. Ulndy rebounded to oust West Virginia State (3-1) and Lewis (10-7) before falling to then-defending champion and host SIU Edwardsville, 5-4 in eight innings.

Hounds vs. SVSU Ulndy won the only meeting between the schools this season, a 5-4 win at the Rebel Spring Games in Kissimmee, Fla. The Greyhounds had two hits apiece from Maggie Swanson, Megan Russell, Ashley Boxley and Lindsey Gustine. Russell's two-RBI single in the fifth put the Hounds on top for good and helped give her the win in the circle.

Hop on the Bus, Russ: Junior Megan Russell is rewriting the Ulndy record books and putting her name on both offensive and pitching lists at the school. Her 17 homers this season are not only the most in a season, they blow away the record of 10 set last season by her teammates Jessica Breeden and Jamie Keltz. Russell has 106 career runs batted in, most ever by a Greyhound. Not to be outdone, her 367 career strikeouts in the circle already rank third in school history and her 38 wins in her career are fourth-best at the school.

Maggs Taking Extra Bags: Senior Maggie Swanson has put up gaudy numbers in her career in the NCAA tournament. Last year, Swanson led the Great Lakes Regional with nine hits and this season she added five more hits in three games, giving her 14 safties in just seven NCAA games. Overall, she is hitting .583 (14-for-24) with 2 HR in NCAA tournament games.

Hammer Time!: The Greyhounds continue to add-on to the homerun mark that they seemingly break each season. In 2006, Ulndy hit a then-record 20 homers only to see it topped in 2007 with 25 HRs. Last year, Ulndy more than doubled that mark, bashing 52 HRs. This year, that number is already 57. To put it in perspective, in 35 seasons (1969-2004) the Greyhounds combined to hit 162 homeruns. Since Melissa Frost-Fisher became the coach in 2005, Ulndy has whacked 154 round-trippers.

Ulndy vs. Top 25 This Season: Indianapolis boasts a 4-2 record against nationally-ranked teams (at the time of the game) this season. Ulndy beat #20 Georgia College and State 9-6 on Feb. 22. The Hounds then fell to #8 Ferris State (1-2) on Mar. 9 before entering conference play. Ulndy split with #21 Lewis on Mar. 21 (4-2, 4-7) before the two wins over #18 Wayne State last weekend (1-0, 6-4).

Close it Out: Indianapolis is 24-2 this season when leading after four innings. That mark includes a spotless 15-0 record when leading heading into the seventh inning. The Greyhound pitching staff has allowed just 21 runs combined in the sixth and seventh innings all season.

Broken Record: Once again, the 2009 version of the Greyhounds have assaulted the school's history books, demolishing both season and career marks. Below are lists that have active players dotting the top 10. Several records have already been broken with numerous others within reach.
