

SVSU Head
Softball Coach
Sabrina Lane

Sabrina Lane is entering her second season as Head Softball Coach with Saginaw Valley State University. During her first season, she led the Cardinals to a 26-11 record. Prior to her arrival at Saginaw Valley State University, Lane spent two seasons as the Graduate Assistant at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania. Prior to her time at Edinboro, she coached internationally in Denmark during the summer of 2001. Lane played softball for Gannon University, and helped lead the team to their first NCAA tournament appearance in 1999.

Camp Philosophy

The Saginaw Valley State Fastpitch Softball mini camps are a great place for your daughter to learn the fundamental skills of the game of softball. We are here to teach your daughter the game in a fun environment. There will be coaches on hand to help break down the skills at all ages and to assure that your daughter receive the utmost personal attention.

Softball Skills

The softball skills camp is a great place to learn all of the basic skills of the game. We will cover aspects of hitting, base running, fielding, bunting, pitching and catching. This is a great way to learn new skills and perfect techniques.

Ages

This camp is open to girls who will be in grades 5-12 after September 1, 2005.

Fee

Residential Camp	$185.00
Commuter Camp	$100.00

Commuter Camp will include lunch only.

Payment

Please include your non-refundable payment with this registration form to secure a spot in this camp.

Facilities

All instruction will take place on the SVSU softball field. It is a state of the art fully enclosed field right on campus. In case of rain the Ryder Center will be used.

Medical Facilities

An Athletic Trainer will be readily available throughout the camp.

Check in and Registration

Check in will be from 1:00pm on Friday at the Ryder Center.

Commuter Drop off/Pick Up

Please drop off your daughter at 9:00am on Saturday and Sunday and pick her up at 5:00pm on Friday and Saturday daily at the SVSU softball field. Camp starts promptly at 9:00am on Saturday and Sunday.

Lunch

Lunch will be served daily, at 12:30pm. Please make sure your daughter eats a good breakfast daily.

Equipment Needed

Please bring your glove, and bat if you have it. If you are a catcher, bring your gear. Be sure to dress appropriately for an June day (spikes, etc). A water bottle would also be a good idea.
