Area of Expertise

Paul has been the editor and publisher of The Saginaw (MI) News since June 1988. It is the 234th largest newspaper by circulation of the 1,456 United States dailies. He was the metropolitan editor of The Saginaw News from 1981 to 1988. Paul worked for The Grand Rapids Press between 1972 and 1981. During that time he was an education reporter, then a city hall reporter, and later became assistant metropolitan editor.

Paul was drafted in the U.S. Army in 1970. During his two years in the army, he set-up a 3,000-circulation, every-other-week newspaper to serve a support brigade for an armored division. He was responsible for all aspects of publication including managing a photographer, a reporter and correspondents, printing and distribution.
