

Saginaw Valley State University Study Abroad Scholarship Application

Deadline for submission for Fall study abroad is March 15. Deadline for submission for Winter study abroad is October 15. (Spring and summer programs are not eligible.) Please return completed form and typed essay (described below) to the International Programs Office, W-160. Recipients of this scholarship must complete 10 hours of volunteer service to the Office of International Programs upon their return from their stay abroad. This may include putting together a photo album of the site, writing a paper about the site which would include tips for future students, giving presentations to classrooms, helping with the Study Abroad Open House, attending events such as the Card's Party and SVSU's Open House, and any other activities that will help recruit future students for study abroad. It is also mandatory to attend the study abroad orientation in order to be eligible for this scholarship.
