

Saginaw Valley State University
Faculty Overseas Lecturing/Research Opportunities
Application

Eligibility Requirement: Overseas opportunities are generally available to faculty after successful completion of their probationary period (two years of teaching at SVSU). It is expected that faculty will make necessary arrangements for teaching and other responsibilities which would be interrupted by the proposed opportunity abroad by notifying the relevant department, Dean and Vice President for Academic Affairs. If additional information is necessary please add another page or pages.

Name:	Date:
-------	-------

Department:

Site(s) of interest:

Preferred time (month/year) of travel:
--

Goals/expectations for trip:

Relevance to Professional Development:
--

Selection for these opportunities is based in part on an expectation that the faculty member will share the experience with the campus community. Would you be willing to "present" your experience to the campus during International Education Week (typically the second week in November)? ___yes ___no

How else would you plan to share your experience with the SVSU community?

(Over)

Please list any related prior experience:

Others who might accompany you on the trip (eg. Spouse, children):

Name	Relationship	Birth Date	Citizenship

Would a sabbatical be involved in your proposed experience abroad? ___yes ___no

If yes, how so?

It is necessary to notify the relevant Department Chair, Dean and V.P. for Academic Affairs and ask each to review your application and sign below.

Signature	Comments

Department Chair

Dean

Please attach your resume and return the completed application to:
Office of International Programs
Wickes 141