Based on the results of your 2011-2012 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you did not report information about your parent(s). You indicated you have special circumstances.

If all of the following apply, please complete and return this form:

- You have contact (regardless of how much) with your parent(s) but you do not live with them,
- You do not receive ANY support from your parent(s); this includes insurance coverage, auto payments, or support of any kind
- Your parent(s) have refused to complete the parent portion of the 2011-2012 FAFSA

The criteria above pertain to the parent(s) that would be required for FAFSA completion. Therefore, parent(s), for purposes of this form, are defined by the FAFSA guidelines as follows:

- Grandparents, foster parents, legal guardians, aunts and uncles are not considered parents on this form unless they have legally adopted you.
- If your parents are living and married to each other, the criteria above apply to them.
- If your parent is single or widowed, the criteria above applies to that parent.
- If your widowed parent is remarried as of the date you completed the 2011-2012 FAFSA, the criteria above applies to that parent and your stepparent.
- If your parents are divorced or separated, the criteria applies to the parent you lived with more during the 12 months prior to completing the 2011-2012 FAFSA. If that parent is remarried, the criteria also applies to your stepparent.
- If your parents are divorced or separated, and you did not live with either parent during the 12 months prior to completing the FAFSA, the criteria applies to the parent who provided more support to you during the 12 months prior to completing your 2011-2012 FAFSA, or during the most recent time that you actually received support from a parent. If that parent is remarried, the criteria also applies to your stepparent.
