Online/Hybrid Faculty Training Courses

The next opportunity for faculty to participate in online/hybrid faculty training will be in the winter semester. Two different courses will be offered. The Developer Course is intended for those faculty members who wish to learn how to design and teach their own online or hybrid courses. The Facilitator Course is designed for those instructors who would be teaching a section of an existing online or hybrid course that another faculty member had previously designed. The dates for the courses are:

Developer Course: January 28-April 12
Facilitator Course: February 4-March 15

Both courses will be offered by Dr. Poonam Kumar, Professor of Educational Technology and Development. For information on either the Developer or Facilitator course, or to register for one of the courses, contact Poonam Kumar at pkumar@svsu.edu, or (989) 964-4189.

Saints & Sinners Salute: Eighth Annual Gala Benefit

The Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum will honor military veterans and pay tribute to Fredericks’ own military service during the museum’s eighth annual gala benefit, Saints & Sinners Salute, Friday, October 5, at 5:30-9:00 p.m.

Some of the region’s finest artists have donated more than 45 works of art for a silent auction that will be held from 5:30 to 7:45 p.m., followed by a live auction at 8:00 p.m. hosted by Midland auctioneer Mike Furlo. Proceeds from the benefit will support exhibitions and educational programs at the Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum.

“For eight years some of the finest artists in the Great Lakes Bay Region and beyond have donated a work of art to the Saints and Sinners art auction. It's become a signature event because of the generosity of these fabulous artists,” said Marilyn Wheaton, Museum Director. “This event would not be the success that it is without the artists,” Wheaton added.

The Dow Chemical Company is the title sponsor of the event. Benefactors are Matt and Kathleen Davis, Dave and Patti Kepler, Sue and Bill Vitoie, and Elaine (Binky) Hirschfield. Individual patrons are Dr. Bassam Daghman, Carl and Christina Fredericks, Terence and Carleen Moore, Matt and Dawn Pumford, and Odail and Mamie Thorns. Corporate patrons are Consumers Energy, Furlo Auction Services, Garber Automotive, Labadie Auto Company, Morley Companies, Inc., Pumford Construction, Inc., and Spence Brothers.

Tickets to Saints & Sinners Salute are $80 each or two for $150, and can be purchased in advance by calling (989) 964-7082. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Memories of World War II, Photographs from the Archives of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The exhibition Memories of World War II, Photographs from the Archives of THE ASSOCIATED PRESS opens at the Museum Friday, October 5.

The AP exhibit is a spectrum of 126 photos from all theaters of the war and the home front, ranging from AP photographer Joe Rosenthal’s classic Iwo Jima flag raising in 1945 to scores of pictures not seen in decades. In the exhibit, familiar scenes of Japan’s attack on Pearl Harbor, along with British and American troops hitting Normandy beaches on D-Day and marching through newly liberated Paris, are juxtaposed with hidden surprises sure to evoke strong memories among older Americans.

“As far as we know, all of the pictures were transmitted at some time on AP wires, but some probably have not been touched since the war,” said Charles Zoeller, curator of the exhibit and an accompanying book, and chief of AP’s vast photo library.

The exhibition runs through January 19, 2013 and is made possible in part by a grant from the Michigan Humanities Council, an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities.
