Resources for Online/Hybrid Teaching

To support faculty teaching online/hybrid courses we have compiled resources related to best practices. We have created a Pinterest Board that includes a collection of journal articles, conferences, journals, open educational resources, teaching tips on a variety of topics including assessments, effective use of discussion boards, universal design, ideas in practice etc. The Pinterest Board allows us to share rich multimedia content in a simple, organized and visual manner and it also makes it easy for users to collect and share these resources. Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum

Saints, Sinners and ‘63 is the theme for Ninth Annual Gala Benefit

The Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum will celebrate Saginaw Valley State University’s 50th anniversary and the Museum’s 25th anniversary during the museum’s ninth annual gala benefit, Saints, Sinners and ‘63, Friday, October 4, at 5:30 p.m.

Some of the region’s finest artists have donated more than 45 works of art for a silent auction that will be held from 5:30 to 7:45 p.m., followed by a live auction at 8:00 p.m. hosted by Midland auctioneer Mike Furlo. An afterglow with music by the Under Advisement band from Bay City will be in the Museum from 9:00 to 11:00 p.m.

“For nine years some of the finest artists in the Great Lakes Bay Region and beyond have donated a work of art to the Saints and Sinners art auction. It’s become a signature event because of the generosity of these fabulous artists,” said Marilyn Wheaton, Museum Director. “This event would not be the success that it is without the artists,” Wheaton added.

The Dow Chemical Company is the title sponsor of the event. Benefactors are Matt and Kathleen Davis, Joe and Theresa Harlan, and Sue and Bill Vititoe. Individual patrons are Denis and Madeline Burke, Carl and Christina Fredericks, Craig and Karolyn Goslin, Patti and Dave Kepler, and Mervyn and Avril Roundtree. Corporate patrons are Consumers Energy, Furlo Auction Services, Garber Automotive, Morley Companies, Inc., SC Johnson and Son, Inc., and Wildfire Credit Union.

Tickets to Saints, Sinners and ‘63 are $80 each or two for $150, and can be purchased in advance by calling (989) 964-7082. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Richard Hunt, The Art of This Century

The exhibition Richard Hunt, The Art of This Century opens at the Museum Friday, October 4. Richard Hunt will give two gallery talks amongst his stunning sculptures in the Museum on Thursday, October 3, once at 10:00 a.m. and again at 2:00 p.m.

An internationally recognized sculptor living in Chicago, Richard Hunt is best known for his public sculptures. His works fuse art, architecture and the environment. By incorporating found materials and various metals into his works, Hunt uses an abstract expressionist style to create sculptures that suggest organic forms with humanistic qualities.

Hunt has made history for more than 50 years. He was the youngest artist selected to exhibit at the 1962 Seattle World’s Fair, and he was the first African-American artist to have a major solo exhibition at the Museum of Modern Art in 1971. In 2009, the International Sculpture Center awarded him the International Achievement Award. Today Hunt has more sculptures in public spaces than any other artist in the country; 50 are located in Illinois, including more than 30 in the Chicago area.

The exhibition runs through January 25, 2014 and is made possible in part by a grant from the Saginaw Community Foundation.

University Gallery

The SVSU University Gallery will present SVSU Art Alumni Exhibit from October 12 through November 8. This exhibit will feature art work by SVSU Department of Art Alumni. Students who have earned a Bachelor of Art or Bachelor of Fine Art in Art, Visual Art Education or Graphic Design from the last 50 years will be featured in honor of the University’s 50th Anniversary and homecoming celebrations. An artist’s reception will be held on Thursday, October 24 from 4:30 - 6:30 p.m. Gallery exhibits and receptions are free and open to the public. For more information please visit www.svsu.edu/artgallery or call (989-964-4159).
