

MEMORANDUM

TO: Ken Follett

FROM: Merv Stauffer

DATE: July 6, 1982

General Observations:

1. At first, so many characters are doing so many things that it is a bit confusing. (And, I know story!)
2. Threading throughout book is "why is Dadgar doing this?" I don't feel we ever come down with a hard answer.
3. We really come across a$good guys (which is true); but, is it believable?
4. I am really concerned about the ID of Reza, Farhad, and Riaz.
5. Personally, I don't care for the ending. It strikes me as weak and frivolous.

Specific Comments:

1. Pg. 33 - Bull was not 6' tall - was 5'-11"
2. Pg. 62, 8th line from bottom - "TJ" not "Tim"
3. Pg. 67 - Marquez did not go to Laos with Simons
4. Pg. 116 - Used Amir Bakhtiar's name
5. Pg. 184 - Reza is not disguised except for name change
6. Pg. 187 - Strengthen the irony of pledging the US Embassy as Collateral
7. Pgs. 216, 238, 252, 257, 259 - Riaz Sahna is not disguised.
8. Pg. 231 - No PPK's
9. Pg. 231 - Gallagher & Gayden (not Coburn) mixed liquor with coffee
10. Pg. 232 - Gayden not in original list with 4

Page Two

11. Pg. 233 & 236
 - Used Farhad's name and gave family description -- both of which could have tragic consequences for his family in Iran.
12. Pg. 244
 - Steep Green hillside in February?
13. Pg. 263
 - Was not Blue Cross -- was an EDS health card
14. Pg. 293
 - Turkish Team did not have PPK's
15. Pg. 339
 - 300 people? -- close to 1,000. A 747 was built to hold 450 passengers and we really packed them in.
