Dear Al:

We and Morrow have now had an opportunity to read and discuss Ken Follett's new proposal entitled THE KEY TO REBECCA, and we are all agreed that it will make a wonderful and quite successful book. However, we do have certain questions for Ken and we have drafted the enclosed letter. Could you please have Ken read this and answer our questions? When we hear back from you and Ken, we can proceed to the next stage of our agreement, which would be a formal acceptance of the proposal. Again, let me say, we are truly excited about the book-- the story, the setting, the characters.

Sincerely,

Diana Levine
