Dear Ken,

1/23/98

Greetings from Quake City. Thanks for the fax, I appreciate your kind thoughts. Dad is going to have another bypass later today, very risky at his age but as he says, "What the hell...nobody lives forever". Words to live by ...no pun intended. Last night when we left the hospital he took my mother's hand, looked in her eyes and with tears in his eyes said, "Thanks...for everything". It was one of the most touching moment of my life.

On a lighter note, by now you've probably heard, that the UNABOMER pled guilty and admitted that he was the one and only. Several of us went out to celebrate. It was the best case I ever worked and I had the most fun of my career....and I got paid for it too!

I am almost finished with the revisions, just about 20 pages left. I talked to George about a few things...turns out we disagreed here and there so I consulted our legal expert to get the definitive answer, and you shall have it too. I think you'll be pleased with the results. Turns out Judy and the FBI overstepped their authority with some of their promises to Priest. So, we put our so-called heads together and found a possible/probable solution. Stay tuned...film at eleven. I'll fax it all no later than Monday, 1/25/98.

Regarding the acknowledgments...I hope this helps:

1. ROBERT E. WALSH, Special Agent In Charge, (SAC), FBI, San Francisco He was also the On-Scene-Commander during the exercise.
2. GEORGE V. VINSON, Assistant Special Agent in Charge, (ASAC), FBI, San Francisco
3. SSA JOHN R. GRAY, Crisis Management Coordinator, FBI, San Francisco
4. SSA DON WHALEY, Chief Division Counsel, FBI, San Francisco
5. SSA LARRY LONG, Supervisor, Tech Squad, FBI San Francisco
6. SA CANDICE ROSING DeLONG, Profiling Coordinator, FBI, San Francisco
7. SA TONY MAXWELL, ERT Coordinator, FBI, San Francisco
8. DOMINIC GIZZI, Administrative Officer, FBI, San Francisco
9. PEARLE GRAVES, Computer Specialist, Information Resources Division, FBIHQ, Washington, D.C.

10. SETH ROSING DeLONG, Graduate Student, Department of Political Science, University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia
11. The medical info for the shooting scene, in case you use it, came from one of my brothers...Dr. KEITH J. ROSING, Director of Emergency Services, Irvine Medical Center, Irvine, California and Associate Professor of Medicine, University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California.

If you don't like the "What if" scenario we came up with..no problem. If you want medical info of a different nature, let me know. He's been an ER doc for 25 years and has seen just about everything, his ER stories are real knee-slappers. Perhaps I read you wrong, but you didn't seem too hot about the dual shoot-out scenario Keith and I cooked up. Just let me know what you want...we are a full-service family and ready to serve:) (But Judy must shoot him twice).

Well, it's off to the hospital, I've been stalling. Oh, regarding your offer of a donation to a charity of my choice, I've given that some thought and would like to talk to you about it more. Later.

Judy Rocks,

Candice
