

1. The problem stated
2. The team introduced
3. A preliminary sketch
4. Shipwreck
5. The team lands and is betrayed. Problems multiply with breathtaking speed.
6. One man badly wounded - must be carried
7. A search party
8. Local help.
9. The dark one (Panayotis)
10. Captured!
11. Attacked from the air
12. Stevens' sacrifice - the coward redeemed
13. Held up.
14. Judas unmasked. The deadline advanced.
15. Inside the fortress
16. Getting away
17. The explosion.

Mallery - leader

Andrea - grant

Stevens - coward

Miller - jester

Panayotis - traitor

Dieter's meeting with Greta's meeting with Dieter's meeting with 10

posters. She lies low, but the others misbehave. Diana takes Greta to a gay club. Ivy and Maude get drunk in a bar. Ruby goes to be with a handsome SS officer.

10. Dieter arrests Diana and Ivy. He tortures Ivy to make Diana talk.

11. The rest of the team drive to Sainte-Cécile. Flick, changing her appearance, gets a job as a telephone operator and cases the joint. That night the team all substitute for operators and cleaners and get in on the night shift. The deadline is brought forward.

12. Diana talks and Dieter raises the alarm.

13. The team place the charges and set the timers. The Gestapo realize something is up and search the place. The explosives are well hidden, but Greta is arrested. She is interrogated in a room right next to the charge. Knowing she is going to die, she says nothing. Five alarm. Building evacuated.

The bomb goes off.

Next day is Tuesday 6 June—D Day.

Dieter's speech about the me he loved being killed by the Nazis.

Part 3

14. Dieter learns where Flick is supposed to rendezvous with her pickup plane. He ambushes the place. Flick smells a rat. She watches from a distance, helpless, as the pilot is arrested then shot. She returns to Paris.

Paul is arrested. She must help him escape.

15. Paul Chance comes to Paris to find her. As the Allies approach, she has confrontations with Gilberte, Michel, and Dieter.

Epilogue

Flick is recommended for a George Cross, but Simon Fortescue is on the committee and he vetoes it.