

THOMAS J. MARQUEZ'S NOTES

- Page 16 The clause referred to in the middle of the page is not normally in EDS contracts.
- Page 30 In 1969 Henry Kissinger was Chief Foreign Policy Advisor in the White House. He was not Secretary of State. Henry Kissinger was Secretary of State from September 22, 1973 - January 20, 1977.
- Page 31 Bill Sullivan was not the Ambassador to Laos during our POW effort. He was a former Ambassador to Laos, having been appointed in 1964. In 1969 he was Deputy Assistant Secretary of State for Asian and Pacific Affairs.
- Page 33 It might be interesting to mention that Clint Eastwood was also at the party for the Son Tay Raiders.
- Page 40 Description of TJ inaccurate, but don't change a word.
- Page 41 & 51 Ambassador Zahadi had returned to Iran and was there when Moore and Kissinger both talked to him. He was running the country because the Shah had gone into a very depressed state.
- Page 41 (bottom) The word is "somewhere" not "somewheres".
- Page 59 (bottom)
Page 60 (top) Would countries like Kuwait and Saudi Arabia be classified as underdeveloped? If so, we need to make a change.
- Page 62 (bottom) I've never used the phrase "how so". The word "why" would be more natural.
- Page 65 (2nd paragraph) I can't imagine Bull Simons biting his nails.
- Page 68 The Hilton Inn is on Central Expressway, not LBJ.
- Page 73-4 I don't recall Ross ever going to the Hilton Inn.
- Page 82 Did the incident with Ron Davis really happen?
- Page 87 (near bottom) When the subject of a diversion first came up, someone suggested blowing up a car. Bull said, "If there is as much turmoil in the streets as the team had described, they would have to blow up something more substantial than a car, like a building."

- Page 96 Do we want to point out that some of the troops that were killed at Son Tay were Russian and Chinese?
- Page 141 Did General Gast arrange to get us some gasoline?
- Page 147 (top) Shouldn't it be "Bull's team" not "Coburn's team"?
- Page 149 Tom Walter, not Tom Marquez, handled the legal details when Ruthie bought the house.
- Page 222 (top) Do we want to use the term "illegal rescue team"?
- Page 232 (bottom) Bill Gayden was not on the original list of four people Dadgar was after.
- Page 257 We finally got a telephone line. We called the number and got a wrong number. We automatically assumed that the line had been obtained by Ray Johnson. As it turned out, the international operator had obtained this ~~number~~ ^{line} and sometime later Ray was able to ~~give~~ ^{take} us a line.
- Page 257 The State Department did not know about the overland route until after Ross had talked to their people in Turkey, so the timing on the leak to Dudney in the book is wrong.
- Page 312 Why Pat Sculley?

THINGS LEFT OUT THAT MIGHT BE OF INTEREST

1. Ross's offer to fly the wounded embassy marine out of Iran.
2. Bull's intense hatred of Dadgar and his total dedication to getting Paul and Bill out without having to pay a ransom does not come through. The fact that Bull was also articulate and could be very talkative, does not come through. He comes through as a one-dimension, limited interest, limited vocabulary type person.
