

Deep Throat's Family

17 August 82

Dear Mr [REDACTED],

Thankyou for your letter of 30 June. I don't know why you should want me to take your name out of my book, but I will if you wish. Would you do something for me in return? You say the draft I sent you contains 'several inaccuracies', but you tell me of only one. Would you be kind enough to let me know what the others are? I should be most grateful.

Yours sincerely,

Ken Follett.
