Mr. Ken Follett

Dear Ken:

I received the brochure from your English publisher.

My observations:

- Too many pictures and too much space devoted to Follett.
- Not enough pictures and not enough space devoted to Perot.

Seriously, it is great, and I hope it will sell your book.

I am sending Margaret Thatcher a copy of the part that talks about your personal financial success. I am also sending an accompanying letter that explains your political philosophy and assure the Prime Minister that you will probably want to donate the profits of your book to the British Treasury.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Ross
