

MEMORANDUM

TO: Ken Follett
FROM: Merv Stauffer
DATE: December 13, 1982
RE: Joe Poche's Comments on The Third Draft

This is a true story -- there are pieces that are not true.

Page 108, Paragraph #4

Tin cans were really bob wire

Page 257, Last Paragraph

RE: Individual named Rashid and Simons... -- this did not really occur. X

Page 262, Paragraph #2

Majid.

It was not the Cycle Man who drove to the Persian Gulf -- it was [REDACTED].

Merv will check with Coburn.

[Merv will check with Coburn.]

Page 303

RE: "Coburn going to hotel and calling Simons and Poche at Dvoranchik's house" -- Not True. The call came from hotel. Poche was on the roof of the house and Simons was downstairs sleeping. Simons got the call. After searching house, found Poche on roof and said "lets go to the hotel."