Dear Mrs Marketos,

You may have heard that I am writing a book about Paul .
Chiapparone and Bill Gaylord and their escape from Iran. You appear in the story, in a small incident at the Tehran airport.
I am sending you the page on which your name appears. Would you be kind enough to let me know whether this represents your recollection of the incident? I would be most grateful.

Yours sincerely,

Ken Follett.
