

Clipper Passengers Get Thrill

BOTWOOD, Nfld., Aug. 1 (Canadian Press).—Passengers on the Pan American Yankee Clipper, scheduled to land today at Foynes, Eire, after a regular transatlantic flight, received an unexpected thrill Sunday when the flying boat drew near Botwood. They received a boat ride for fifteen miles and did not have to leave their seats. Poor visibility caused the pilot to land fifteen miles from the base and taxi in. Twenty-eight passengers were aboard when the Clipper left here late yesterday on the return trip.

at 11 o'clock last night. He was discovered by a policeman who was on his way to investigate the blaze. Albertino, part owner of the school, told the police he was attacked by two assailants after he had entered the hall to put out an electric light in the display window. The school, which specializes in instructions for children, was closed, he said.

The police also were puzzled but inclined to the belief that Albertino's assailants were the accidental incendiaries. They said they believed the intruders were safecrackers intent upon cutting through the dance school floor to Jay's Food Market underneath and blowing the safe.

NY Times, Aug 2, 1939