Kim Chandler has been named head women’s basketball coach. She is the seventh coach in the program’s history. Chandler has 13 years of collegiate coaching experience. Prior to accepting the SVSU position, she coached the Ohio Northern University Polar Bears for six seasons.

The newest classroom structure on the SVSU campus will take place at 11:15 a.m., Wednesday, Aug. 22.

The Interior of Mathematics and Science Education, said she couldn’t imagine not presenting a paper July 26 at the biennial meeting of the International Society for the History of Rhetoric. The conference, entitled "Zarathustra in Love: Prose Poems," is posted online at www.svsu.edu/~glt.

Grants awarded for 2001-02 will be available at the Department of Public Safety Parking Services beginning Aug. 15. Current permits expire Sept. 15. New permits cost $75.00. The Reservation parking lot and the B Lots are directly east of the College of Education Building, and in the southeast corner of B Lot. For more information, call 790-4140.

The project is to renovate the library to serve several generations of SVSU students and the community. SVSU has much for which to be proud," he added.

Thompson said, "The two new programs are a direct result of the focus on the student body which has been a priority of the administration." The program will begin in the fall semester and will be open to all SVSU students. The programs will be taught by full-time faculty members who have been selected specifically for their abilities to work with students on a one-to-one basis.

The program will provide an opportunity for students to explore their interests in a variety of subjects. The programs will offer courses in areas such as art, music, literature, and history.

The program will also provide an opportunity for students to work with their instructors on a regular basis. The programs will offer weekly office hours for students to discuss their progress and to receive feedback on their work. The programs will also offer individualized coaching and guidance to help students achieve their goals.

The program will be offered for the fall semester only. Students who are interested in the program should contact the program director, Professor Thompson, at 790-4140.
