THE INTERIOR

Come next Monday, you'll see some new faces on campus. Additions to our faculty and staff include:

Gerry Hoffman, who will be trainer, wrestling coach, and instructor of physical education. Hoffman comes from Alpena High School, where he was head wrestling coach.

Dr. JoAnn M. Lazarus, who will replace Guy Lee as Director of Student Teaching. She will also be associate professor of Education. She comes from the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, where she was employed in the college of education. Dr. Lee is Associate Dean of the College of Education.

George L. Kallos, who will be Director of Educational Services, Saginaw Juvenile Center, and instructor in Education. He will design and supervise the educational programs at the Juvenile Center, and supervise SVC students working at the Center. He has been superintendent of the Shiawassee County Intermediate School District.

With Open Registration completed, 734 students have enrolled for summer term. These students have generated 3,582 credit hours. These figures represent a 10 per cent increase over the 665 students and 3,237 credit hours reported last year at this time.

Dr. Capitan will remain as acting president until the July 8 Board of Control meeting. The Presidential Search Committee is visiting various candidates on their campuses, and will select the ones to visit SVC.

The first report of the fund-raising drive for athletics is scheduled for tomorrow at 4 p.m. in Doan Center.
