CAMPUS NOTES

Maurice E. Brown, a founder of Saginaw Valley College and a member of its Board of Control for eight years, died last night. Brown helped organize Delta College, and served as chairman of the Delta College Board of Trustees. He was active in Saginaw affairs, and was a mayor of the city.

Paul Still's "Story Theatre" will be the inaugural production of the college's Theatre Arts Department in the renovated theatre building this Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. and Sunday at 4 p.m.

The narration and illustration of stories from the Brothers Grimm and Aesop will include "The Bremertown Musicians," "Henny Penny," and "The Fisherman and His Wife." Ron Kieft said the stories rely upon the imagination of the actors and audience alike, as only stage and seats exist in the theatre building.

Children are invited, and admission to the production is free.

The college community is invited to a reception for Dr. William Owsley from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. in Doan Center next Thursday, December 12. He is retiring at the end of this semester, and will be headed for Kentucky within a few days after the classes are completed.

SVC staff and faculty members are asked to submit names of SVC juniors and seniors who may be eligible for the Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. The students must be outstanding students, be active in community affairs, and/or be prominent in extra-curricular activities at the college. Names may be submitted to Dolores Ramirez, one of the coordinators of the event.

Eleventh and twelfth-grade students in Saginaw, Bay, and Midland counties high schools are being invited to compete in SVC's Theodore Roethke Awards Contest for 1974-75. Contest categories include poetry, fiction, or essay selections. Dr. Raymond Tyner is coordinator of the event.

Winners of the Roethke Awards will attend a poetry workshop with a distinguished writer, and will be guests of the college for a dinner and program, at which the awards will be made.

The Saginaw Valley Singers and the College Chorale, under the direction of Terry Platt, will film a production tomorrow to be shown on Gerity Cablevision later this month.

John Jezierski will be interviewed on Saginaw radio station WSGW tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. His topic will be the history of the Saginaw Valley.

Richard Wenek spoke on "Understanding Polonia Today" at the 14th Annual Conference of American Association of State Colleges and Universities last November 15 in Miami Beach, Florida.

Elvira Madigan, a love story directed by Bo Widenberg, will be shown this Friday at 8 p.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall. This is the last film in the SVC Classic Film Series.

What's Up Doc?, starring Barbra Streisand and Ryan O'Neal, will be shown this Thursday at 1 p.m. and 9 p.m., Friday at 1 p.m., and Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall.

PERSONNEL NOTICES

The college is seeking candidates for a part-time faculty instructor to teach social work/sociology for the winter semester. Candidates must have a master's degree in social work or a master's degree in sociology with social work employment experience. This position is available exclusively to SVC employees until December 10. Interested persons should contact the Personnel Office, ext. 266, before that date. SVC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

SPORTS SHORTS

SVC's first Annual Football Banquet will take place at 7 p.m. Thursday, December 12, at the Bavarian Inn, Frankenmuth. Students, faculty, and administration are invited. The cost is $8 per person. Reservations can be made through George Eastland (for faculty), Stuart Gross (for administration) and Mike Mills for all others. Reservations must be in by Tuesday afternoon.

The initial stage of Phase I of SVC's $1.6 million football stadium has begun. The present construction will include all of the site preparation, drainage, irrigation, and earthwork for the installation of the playing surface by next spring.

The playing surface will be the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT), and is intended to be ready for play by the September 13, 1975 opener with Adrian College. The PAT system is a special system of drained and headed natural grass, patented by Purdue University.

The SVC wrestling team will open its home season December 4 at 4 p.m. with a triangular meet against Muskegon and Olivet Colleges. The Cardinal matmen placed third in the Schoolcraft Invitational over the Thanksgiving holiday.

Sporting a 2-2 record, the Cardinal cage efforts will turn toward a four-game home stand beginning Saturday at 8 p.m. against Albion College.

The women's basketball team will make its debut on the home court Monday, December 9.
