the interior

Produced by the Department of Community Affairs

March 11, 1975

CAMPUS NOTES

Congratulations are in order for Frank "Muddy" Waters, who has been elected to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) Hall of Fame, Coaches Category. He will be inducted this Friday in ceremonies at Kansas City, Missouri. He will be honored at a college-wide reception next Monday, March 17, in the lower level of Doan Center. All faculty, staff, and students are invited to attend the reception from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Dr. Donna Read will speak on "Learning Centers" this Thursday at 7 p.m. at a meeting of the Midland County Reading Council, at Bullock Creek High School.

Erik Beckman is attending the Academy of Criminal Justice Science Conference in Atlanta, George, March 17-24. He is attending the Conference at his own expense.

The Office of Scholarships and Financial Aids is sponsoring a workshop for returning financial aid students this Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall. Paul Gill, director, said the workshop will help students become familiar with the various kinds of financial aid available to them, and how to apply for it.

Deadline for the 1975 Literary Awards contest is March 27. Students may enter 11 categories for prose, poetry, translation, and illustration. The awards will be presented at the Awards Evening on April 5.

The College of Education, in cooperation with the Office of Continuing Education, is planning four MAT courses for spring term and seven for summer term to the graduate students in the Macomb Intermediate School District (MISD). This off-campus program has grown steadily since its inception in the summer of 1974, when it had only 36 students. This winter term 104 students are enrolled at the MISD Center. Drs. Leslie Whittaker, Gamal Elashhab, and Robert Meadows travel to the Center weekly to offer the courses. Dr. Guy Lee is director of the project.

MOVIES

Les Enfants du Paradis, the complete three-hour version of Macel Carne's dream vision of early 19th Century Paris, will be shown this Friday at 8 p.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall. The film is part of the college's Classical Film Series.

The Pursuit of Happiness, which studies the music of the 18th Century - Bach, Handel, Mozart, and Haydn - will be shown this Thursday in the Wickes Lecture Hall at 7 p.m.

I am Curious (Yellow) will be shown in the Wickes Lecture Hall this Thursday at 10 p.m., Friday at 1 p.m., and Sunday at 8 p.m.

CO-OP NOTES

Gene Hamilton's article, "Freshman Grades and Part-Time Employment: A New Look at a Perennial Concern," will be included in the Cooperative Education Information Clearinghouse, which was established in 1972 to help meet the need for dissemination of literature concerning cooperative education.

He has also been named chairman of the Secondary/Post-Secondary Articulation Committee of the National Cooperative Education Association, and has been asked to participate in a workshop entitled "The Advancement of Minority Co-Op Programs--A Corporate Investment," at the annual meeting of the CEA held in April in St. Louis, Missouri.

PRESIDENT'S NOTES

Dr. Ryder, Dr. McCray, and Dr. Halter will travel to Lansing tomorrow to meet with the State Board of Nursing, to discuss modification of SVC's existing nursing program to a four-year program leading to a Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree. Dr. Ryder said arrangements have been worked out with Delta College to assure effective articulation between the two institutions.

At the monthly Board of Control meeting this Saturday, Dr. Ryder will speak on the restoration of the college's language program. The programs in French and German, which had been under consideration for change for the 1975-76 academic year, will not be modified. The two fields of study will continue their status, with German offered as a minor and French as a major.

PERSONNEL NOTES

Good Friday and other religious holidays, with the exception of Christmas, will not be observed with paid time off. However, all college personnel are invited to make whatever individual arrangements possible to observe these holidays within the limits of vacation and personal time available to them.

New employees on campus: Pamela Bresser, Secretary III in Admissions; Mary Cherwinski, Custodian II; Lila Duby, Keypunch Operator; Valorie Hammond, Secretary III in Athletics; Roy Hardy, Custodian II; Barbara Jaski, Accounting Clerk III in the Business Office; Diana Kavanagh, Secretary III in Academic Support Services; Susanne Kearns, Secretary III in Student Activities; Virginia Krawczek, Secretary III with Faculty Secretaries; Melvin Marks, Equipment Room Assistant; Palamon "Sonny" Medina, Motor Pool Assistant; Norma Reed, Secretary III in Health Sciences; Eddie Rice, Mail Room Assistant; and Walter Threat, Custodian II. All new employees live in Saginaw.

SPORTS SHORTS

Three SVC freshmen wrestlers went to the NAIA National Wrestling Tournament at Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa, over the spring break, and made an impressive showing. Greg Tucker and Ralph Roberts won three matches in the opening day before they lost in the quarterfinals. Heavyweight Bob Rueda lost in the opening round. The Cardinals placed 21st in the nation, ahead of Grand Valley and Lake Superior.

Coach Archy Robinson announced the signing of SVC's first women's athletic scholarships, to Flint Ainsworth's Sharon Brown, a 6-foot center/forward; and Dona Edwards, a 5-9 forward.

REMINDER!

Contact the Community Affairs Office, ext. 208, by Tuesday afternoon, if you plan to attend the reception with the Delta College staff and faculty this Friday, March 14.

* * * * * * *