RE: Addition to French offerings for Fall 1975, not listed in Fall Schedule

French 131--French for Reading Knowledge (3 credits) will be offered in the Fall 1975--Tuesday-Thursday 10-11:30 Room 124. This course is designed primarily for students who have not had any other courses in French. It can assist prospective graduate students who need language training for entrance requirements and/or those who will be taking language proficiency exams in graduate school. French 131 can also be useful for any student who wishes to learn to read French for whatever reasons. The focus in the class will be on helping the student learn to recognize grammatical structures and build an adequate vocabulary so that he can continue to develop his ability after the course is over.

Please have any students with questions contact me for further information.

I would appreciate it if you could bring this new course to the attention of your students. Thank you.
