CAMPUS NOTES

The Music Department will host its Spring Choral Concert on Thursday, April 3, at 8 p.m. in the Theatre Building. The Saginaw Valley Singers and the College Choir will perform.

Organized, happy confusion reigns in the Fine Arts Building on Saturday mornings as 310 youngsters, ages 5 to 12, participate in special art classes under the general direction of Dr. Barron Hirsch.

Hirsch's annual children's workshop is growing in popularity each year. Using 12 classrooms, 22 student teachers assist the young artists from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. The workshops will end April 12, and Hirsch is planning a show of completed works to top off the sessions.

Twelve communities have children attending the sessions: Saginaw, Bay City, Freeland, Auburn, Midland, Kawkawlin, Frankenmuth, Burt, Hemlock, Essexville, Montrose, and Chesaning.

Paul Gill has been named to the Board of Directors of Big Sisters of Saginaw County.

Dr. O. Zeller Robertson will present a paper entitled "Egalitarian Norms.... The Norms of the Future," to the Political Science section of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts, and Letters on Friday, April 4, at the University of Michigan.

The Franc Landee Award for Excellence in Teaching will be awarded at the inauguration ceremony of Dr. Ryder next fall. No award will be made this year at Commencement. Dr. Guy Lee is chairman of the committee.

An Anthology Green River Review 1968-1973, selected by Angus Wilson and published by the Green River Press, Inc. (of University Center and Greensboro, N.C.) is presently on sale from Dr. Raymond Tyner for $5. The Revista International Poetry Review, Spring, 1975, also published by the Green River Press, is on sale from him for $2. Tyner and Evalyn P. Gill, formerly of Saginaw Valley College, are editors of the International Poetry Review, whose spring issue is dedicated to contemporary Spanish poetry. The Board of Directors of the Green River Press include William H. Capitan, Rosemary Polzin, Mary Anne Hart, and George Madison.

This year's Spring Formal will be held on Saturday, April 5, from 7:30 p.m. to 2 a.m. at Bay Valley Inn. All students, faculty, and staff are invited to attend. Tickets, which are $15 per couple, include dinner, cocktail hour, and dancing; and may be purchased at the Student Activities Office.

THE EWWH clan will gather at 2 p.m. this Friday, March 28, to engage in a combat of softball on the playing field of the '68 Building. It's Charlie Brown's idea. EWWH stands for EVERYONE WHO WORKS HERE, and includes faculty, staff, administrators, secretaries, students, clerks, etc. So if it's softball in the spring air you desire, Charlie will organize the activity.

Don't forget that April 1 is the deadline to have your 1975 auto license tabs on your car!!!!!!

Kites and spirits will soar on Saturday, April 12, when the college's Food Service hosts the annual National Intercollegiate Kite-Flying Contest. Various colleges around the State are being invited to participate in the annual Salute-to-Spring activity, and will compete for a traveling trophy.

Anyone may enter the contest. Four-member teams will register at Doan Center on the day of the contest, and have from 12 noon to 1 p.m. to get their kites airborne. Awards are made to those who keep their kites aloft for the longest time. The college record, set in 1970, the first year of the contest, is 19 hours and four minutes.

MOVIES

The Worship of Nature, which examines the belief in the divinity of nature and how it replaced Christianity as the chief creative force in Western civilization, will be shown this Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall.

This Sporting Life will be shown on Thursday at 10 p.m., Friday at 1 p.m., and Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall.

STUDENT NOTES

Four students have won prizes in area art shows: in the Saginaw Women's Club 63rd Annual Regional Art Exhibitions, Diane Laatsch of Saginaw won first and second places in print-making, Linda Bedore of Saginaw won second place in mixed media, and Kenneth Peters of Saginaw won second place in photography. In the Fashion Square Mall Art Fair, John Fetter of Bay City won first prize in print-making.

Twenty SVC students will be guides, mentors, and companions to 20 mentally retarded young persons on a trip to Washington, D.C., April 25 to 29. The students, members of the college chapter of the Michigan Undergraduate Psychological Association (MUPA), have been raising money to pay for the trip by a series of bake sales on the campus, from contributions from friends and churches.

The group has raised $800 toward the trip, while the total expenses are $3,813. Additional funds are being sought, and contributions may be sent care of the college's Community Affairs Office.

The trip is undertaken to expose the youngsters, all from the Bay-Arenac facility, to the broader world. Ms. Joy Hargrove and Dr. Janet Robinson will provide professional guidance.

Nancy Lee of Saginaw was named the Outstanding Accounting Student. Gary Feeney of Bay City was named winner of the College of Business Administration's Wall Street Journal Award.

F. Peter Secor of Bay City and Demetrio Cruz of Saginaw have been named the winners of the Tri-City Data Processing Management Association's scholarship. The scholarships were awarded on the basis of academic achievement in data processing and overall academic achievement.

SPORTS SHORTS

The varsity bowling team has won its first NAIA District Bowling Championship last week, and may have qualified two players for national competition in Kansas City on March 29 and 30.

The golf team, with coach Bob Becker, left Friday for a week of tune-up golf in southern Kentucky. Following their eight-day tour in the south, the two-time GLIAC and NAIA Nationals team will swing into action at Oakland University with a triangular meet with Oakland and Wayne State on April 10.
