

the interior

September 16, 1975

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES REPORT

The entire campus is invited to a Press Conference at 9 a.m., Wednesday, September 17, in the lower level of Doan Center to hear Dr. Jack M. Ryder, President, give the first report on recommendations of the Goals and Objectives Committee. As many faculty, staff, and students who can make arrangements to be present are urged to do so.

CAMPUS NOTES

Classes will not meet on Friday, September 19, to give everyone a chance to attend the Inauguration ceremonies of Dr. Ryder. Administration offices will remain open with a skeleton staff. Visiting delegates will register in the lobby of Cardinal Gymnasium from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., with lunch beginning at 11:30 a.m. Participants will robe on the second floor of Cardinal Gymnasium at 1:30 p.m. with the ceremony beginning at 2:30 p.m. The SVSC Student Government and the Alumni Association will host a reception for Dr. and Mrs. Ryder at Doan Center at 4 p.m. The President's Ball will be held at the Midland Country Club that evening beginning at 7 p.m.

On Thursday, September 18, the SVSC faculty association will host a reception for Dr. and Mrs. Ryder in the lower level of Doan Center from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Try-outs for "Celebration", a Broadway musical to be produced by the Music Department, will be on Tuesday, September 23, at 12:30 p.m. and 7 p.m. in the Theatre Building and on Wednesday, September 24, at 12:30 p.m. in the Theatre Building. The musical, written by the same authors who wrote "The Fantastiks," has roles for seven females and nine males. Interested persons may contact Terry Flatt in the Music Department, ext. 334.

Rose Collamer, Collette Olivarez, and Carol Francke of the Chrysallis Center attended "Women in the Economy: Full Freedom of Choice," a conference sponsored by the Women's Bureau of the U.S. Department of Labor in Washington, D.C., September 11-13. More than 600 women attended the conference, discussing such topics as "Getting Government Funding Systems to Work for Women," "Expanding Job Options for Women," "Increasing the Power of Women in Policy Making," and "Making the Enforcement System Work for You."

Interested in learning more about navigation techniques? You may want to sign up for the course entitled "Celestial and Terrestrial Navigation," sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education. The six-week workshop will meet on Mondays, beginning September 22, at 6:30 p.m. in Room 173 of Arthur Hill High School. Instructor for the course is Dr. John Young, a sailor and student of navigation. Cost for the course is $20. For more information, contact John Broadfoot at ext. 213.

Elizabeth Vajen, assistant professor of nursing, has taken a position with the federal government as a school nurse in Germany.

"Big Mo" is the movie of the week. It will be shown this Thursday at 10 p.m. in the Wickes Lecture Hall.

Don't forget the home football game this Saturday against Northeastern Illinois University at 1:30 p.m. The Varsity defeated Adrian College last Saturday 29-14, and the JV defeated Northwood last night 16-14.

* * * * *