CAMPUS NOTES

The Marson Gallery of Baltimore, specialists in original Oriental art, will have a one-day exhibit on Thursday, March 11, in the library, from 12 noon to 8 p.m. The collection includes paintings, woodcuts, and manuscripts from the 1700's to the present from Japan, China, India, Tibet, Nepal, and Thailand.

An historical perspective of the American Revolution will be discussed by Dr. John Jezierski, associate professor of history, at 8 p.m. this Thursday, March 11, as the Bicentennial Lecture Series at the college Theatre draws to a close.

Dr. Jezierski will explore whether time or history has altered the meaning of liberty, freedom, and virtue as viewed during the Revolutionary Era. He will analyze these concepts in an attempt to establish the boundaries of what has likely become an "institutionalized revolution." The Lecture Series is co-sponsored by the Daughters of the American Revolution and the SVSC History Department.

The drawings of Nancy Philo, Detroit artist and illustrator, will be on display in the Arts Workshop through March 15. A graduate of Wayne State University, Ms. Philo has exhibited her work throughout Michigan, most recently at Michigan State University and the Artforms Gallery in Detroit. Her drawings are of plants, animals, and people.

Don't forget the deadline for nominations for the Distinguished Alumni Award are due by March 15. Send nominations for this award, which will be presented during commencement, May 1, to Jim Muladore, Business Office.

Speaking of commencement, don't forget to contact the bookstore no later than March 19 if you need to rent a cap, gown, and/or hood. The college is assuming regalia rental costs this year. Measurements will be taken March 15 through March 19 during the regular bookstore hours: 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 5:45 p.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

The School of Education has entered into an agreement with the Saginaw Board of Education to provide in-service training for teacher aides in the Bilingual-Bicultural program. Adolph Ayala, instructor in Spanish, has conducted two classes this semester.

The Data Processing Department now has available a Remote Job Entry Terminal for instructional support. It is located in Room 237 of Wickes Hall, and is available for use by faculty and students during the following hours:

Monday through Thursday- 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Friday- 10 a.m. to 4:40 p.m.

Questions about the system can be directed to Mike Golombek, ext. 239.

The drawing for the winner of the Las Vegas trip for two is this Friday, March 12. Be sure to buy a chance from a member of the college golf team.

SPORTS SHORTS

The winter sports season is over. The men's basketball team finished 16-12, its first winning season. The team lost 75-74 to Lake Superior State College in the NAIA District play-offs.

The women's basketball team finished with a 23-3 record, and placed second in the state tournament, losing to Shaw College of Detroit 53-46.

Five of the college's 10 wrestlers qualified and are presently competing in the NAIA National Tournament at Edinboro State College in Edinboro, Pennsylvania.

Peg Guimond, assistant to the director of community affairs, won a bronze medal in the first annual Cystic Fibrosis Cross-Country Fun Run in Tawas February 28. She completed the 6.2-mile course in one hour and 45 minutes.
