HAMILTON, GIBSON HEAD CAREER SERVICES CENTER

Advancement of Eugene J. Hamilton and Mrs. Elizabeth H. Gibson to serve respectively as Director and Assistant Director of the new Saginaw Valley State College Career Services Center was reported today by Dr. Jack M. Ryder, College President. The Career Services Center will merge previously separate agencies dealing with career counseling, placement and cooperative education.

Hamilton, Director of Cooperative Education since 1973, joined S.V.S.C. in 1969 as an Admissions Counselor and was also coach and acting athletic director until 1972. In 1971 he became Director of Scholarships and Financial Aid. He received an A.A. degree from Flint Junior College in 1959, a B.A. from Western Michigan University in 1961, an M.A. from Eastern Michigan University in 1967 and is presently a doctoral candidate at Wayne State University. Before coming to S.V.S.C., he was a teacher, coach and counselor at Flint St. Mary, Mt. Morris St. Mary, and Owosso St. Paul High Schools. Hamilton resides with his wife and two sons at 1981 Maitland, Saginaw.

Mrs. Gibson becomes Assistant Director of the Career Services Center after serving previously as Director of Career Counseling and Placement. She came to S.V.S.C. in 1971 as a Counselor and Coordinator of Placement from Druid High School, Tuscaloosa, Alabama, where she had earlier been a high school counselor and classroom teacher. She received a B.S. degree from Stillman College, Tuscaloosa, in 1952, a Master of Education degree in Social Studies from Wayne State University in 1960 and a Master of Arts endorsement in 1968 in Counseling and Guidance from the University of Alabama, where she earned her Educational Specialist degree in 1971. She and her husband, John Gibson, Jr., live at 142 Ivanhoe, Saginaw, and she has two daughters.

FIRST HOME FOOTBALL GAME SATURDAY

After a resounding 31-7 romp over Adrian College, the S.V.S.C. Cardinals play their home opener Saturday at 1:30 pm against Northwestern Illinois University of Chicago. Tickets are available daily between 8:00 am and 4:30 pm from Director of Business Services Bob Becker. Reserved seats will cost $5.00 per game, with General Admission tickets just $3.00. Students under 12 accompanied by an adult may purchase tickets for $1.00 at the gate.

Fall all-sports passes are still available from the Business Services office for $7.50. S.V.S.C. employees are each entitled to one pass without charge and may purchase additional copies for $7.50 each. The pass admits the purchaser to all S.V.S.C. home athletic events during fall term. Get your tickets and support the Fighting Cardinals!

The Cross Country team placed second behind Ferris State College on Saturday at Big Rapids. Three S.V.S.C. runners led by Pete Hallop, finished in the top 10. S.V.S.C. recorded a 25:38 time over the five mile course.

BIRCH BAYH COMING THURSDAY NIGHT

Don't sit at home Thursday night to hear network newsmen analyze the Presidential Debate - come to Doan Center to view the debate on television and ask Indiana Senator Birch Bayh your first-hand questions afterwards.

Senator Bayh will present an on-campus lecture at 8:00 pm, sponsored by S.V.S.C. under auspices of the Program Board. Following his lecture, the television debate will be viewed and a question and answer period will conclude the evening, which is open to the public without charge.
