SPEECH AND THEATRE ARTS PRODUCTION THIS WEEKEND

Included will be Albee's "The American Dream", "The Zoo Story", and "The Sandbox".

An examination of the American scene, "The American Dream" is an attack on the substitution of artificial for real values in our society, as seen through the pieties of the family. Appearing in the cast are: Kathi Clark, a sophomore from Beaverton; Rae Farris, a junior from Bay City; Tom Hoffman, a freshman from Bay City; Sharon Singh, a freshman from Saginaw; and Sue Sterken, a freshman from Pinconning.

"The Zoo Story" is a chilling account of man's lack of communication and of commitment to his fellow man as shown when a young, modern savage slowly but relentlessly brings his victim down to his own primeval level. Rae Farris portrays the young man and directs the production, while Bob Cederberg, a freshman from Saginaw, is the victim.

"The Sandbox" is a theatre piece commenting on the handling by contemporary civilization of old things such as values, persons or whatever. Appearing in the cast are: Tom Hoffman; Keith Jackson, a freshman from Detroit; Debra Jones, a junior from Detroit; Michael Mehl, a freshman from Oscoda; and Yvette Wilburn, a freshman from Detroit.

Ronald J. Kieft, Department Chairman, is artistic director, while Doug Wagener is technical director. Complimentary tickets for SVSC faculty and staff persons will be available at the box office.
