22 STUDENTS NAMED TO "WHO'S WHO"

Twenty-two students from SVSC have been named to the 1977-78 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." A campus nominating committee and the editors of the annual directory selected the students based on their academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential. They join an elite group of students selected from more than 1,000 institutions of higher learning in all 50 states and several foreign nations.

Outstanding students have been honored in the annual directory since it was first published in 1934. Named from SVSC are twelve students from Saginaw, two each from Bay City and Freeland, and one each from Davison, Essexville, Midland, Montrose, St. Charles and Southgate.

CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON SET FOR WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 21

Plans are in the making for a Christmas Luncheon on Wednesday, December 21, at SVSC's Doan Center. A hospitality hour from 12:00 noon to 12:30 P.M. will be followed by lunch from 12:30 to 1:15 P.M. After lunch, live entertainment will be provided.

SVSC JAZZ CONCERT TO BE FAMILY FARE

To show that big band jazz is entertaining for all ages, the SVSC Jazz Ensemble will be presenting a free concert next Monday, December 12, for family members of all ages. The 7:00 P.M. performance in the Theatre is being offered to the general public through a special project grant from Dr. and Mrs. Robert Lurie, Saginaw.

Featured along with the 22-member college group will be saxophone soloist Jeff Hall of the well-known "Method" jazz quintet from Flint. Originally from the Saginaw area, he attended college at the Berkelee School of Music in Boston, Massachusetts and has been strongly influenced by jazz great Sonny Stitt, also of Saginaw. Hall presently teaches saxophone, clarinet and flute for SVSC in addition to playing professionally. He is an accomplished arranger and included among his work is the arrangement of "Rocky" which the ensemble will perform.

"We are trying to encourage public school musicians and other interested people to take advantage of this opportunity to hear a fine area band," said Director Charles T. Brown, Associate Professor of Music. "The Lurie Grant will also sponsor additional concerts on January 30, March 6 and April 3 which will bring in different local professional musicians as soloists with the jazz ensemble." Like Monday's performance, the other three concerts will also be held in the Theatre beginning at 7:00 P.M.

Although not a part of the jazz series at SVSC, the jazz ensemble will finish the school year with a concert at the Midland Center for the Arts on Friday, April 7. The SVSC group toured Europe for two weeks last August and participated in concerts and jazz festivals in Switzerland, West Germany and Austria.

EVENING "COLLEGE SHOPPING HOURS" OFFERED FOR DAY WORKERS

If you have a friend or family member who has been interested in the possibility of obtaining a college degree but unable to leave their place of employment during the day to check us out, please invite them to Doan Center next Tuesday, Dec. 13, for a 7-9 P.M. coffee and doughnut hour.

The evening hospitality session has been arranged to give day shift employees and factory workers a chance to come to campus without losing any work time.

Resource people will be on hand to answer questions about pursuing a college degree and to discuss possible financial aid assistance and veterans benefits. Participants will also have an opportunity to learn about admissions procedures first hand and can also find out about measuring their occupational preferences through the College testing service.

Persons who have previously taken college courses at SVSC or elsewhere are encouraged to bring their transcripts along to find out that evening how previous college credits will transfer to SVSC and apply to a degree program.

Advance reservations are encouraged and may be made by calling the Center for Placement and Continuing Education Services at Ext. 205 or 206.

JUST A REMINDER

LET YOUR STORY BE HEARD

If you're doing something interesting in your teaching assignment or your administrative position and feel that the general public should know about it, please give Information Services a call at Ext. 207 or 208 so that we can arrange to do a story for you.

You can help SVSC increase its stature and prominence with area residents by simply letting them know the impressive projects, research and teaching methods you are pursuing. Please let us help you do a better job of telling the story by informing us when anything newsworthy takes place in your area!

Because of heavy holiday advertising, newspapers are presently 10-12 days behind on running stories. Thus we will appreciate the earliest notification possible on dated activities. Give us a call anytime you have questions or have anything newsworthy to get out!
