SVSC ENFORCES "NO SMOKING" RULE

It used to be that persons who requested others not to smoke around them were considered strange or inconsiderate, but that attitude is changing. As more research links smoking with cancer, emphysema, and heart disease, it is becoming increasingly permissible for non-smokers to ask smokers, "Please don't smoke around me".

SVSC has gone one step further in this non-smoking campaign, by declaring that smokers can practice their habit only in restricted places on campus. Signs printed with "For Everyone's Sake, No Smoking is Permitted in SVSC Classrooms" are being placed in no-smoking areas this week by representatives of Physical Plant.

By a vote of the Student Senate and a resolution of the College Board of Control last spring, no smoking is allowed in the classrooms, lecture halls, laboratories, conference rooms (when being used for classes), gymnasium and exercise rooms, the library, the theatre, music practice rooms, and designated areas of the cafeteria, Doan Center, and the Cardinal's Nest.

The rule would allow smoking in the halls, offices and the Wickes Hall Student Concourse.

The policy applies equally to faculty, staff, students, and visitors.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE TEACHERS TO CONVERGE

Area high school foreign language teachers from across the Saginaw Valley will be meeting on campus this Wednesday, October 18 from 7 to 9 p.m. in Doan Center to discuss the organization of the new Saginaw Valley Foreign Language Teachers' Association. The meeting is sponsored by SVSC's department of modern foreign languages, which also conducted an extremely successful workshop for the high school teachers' group last May. Present and past foreign language teachers are welcome to join the group, which will consider a proposed constitution at the session.

The teachers will also divide by language into French, German, Polish, Latin, and Spanish sub-groups, for informal presentations of successful teaching techniques.

According to Dr. Lynn Herkstroeter, chairwoman of the department of modern foreign languages, participants will also make 10-minute presentations dealing with grammar, conversation, writing, reading, vocabulary, culture, and literature.

"REMEMBRANCES" RECALLED BY HIRSCH

"Remembrances", an exhibit of mixed media drawings by Dr. Barron Hirsch, chairman of the SVSC art department, is on display daily through Friday, October 27 in the SVSC Arts Workshop. The pictures consist of intaglio (engraved) plates, photo-transfers, and collage.

Hirsch designed the exhibit to evoke a sense of past experiences, as one would get when looking at an old family album and reflecting on otherwise-forgotten happenings.

"These are a nostalgic look back into past times, family history, and the way things were in earlier days. The exhibit goes beyond the personal level into a broad picture of time and era remembrances that would affect many people," Hirsch said. "I used images from newspapers and old photos and handled them basically in a grid arrangement. They were printed in a variety of methods and combined by content."

Hirsch has been with SVSC since 1970 and was earlier an instructor in graphics and held a teaching fellowship at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

LIBRARY TO EXTEND HOURS

Effective this Saturday, October 21, the SVSC Library and Learning Resources Center will extend its weekend hours to provide better service for students and faculty.

New hours will be Saturdays from 12 noon to 5 p.m. and Sundays from 12 noon to 9 p.m., an increase of four hours over the past, noted Dorothy Horwath, acting director.

"We are trying these new hours on an experimental basis, and actual use will have to substantiate the additional cost," she stated. A recent survey of student opinions urged that Sunday hours be extended from the previous 11:30 to 4:30 p.m.

The library is also beginning to issue a new publication to inform faculty members about books being acquired.

Listing will be by classification numbers and by groups, so readers can easily see all the new books in their area of interest. The initial issue is due off the press this week.

FINNEY, SLATER TO HEAD STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Senior Michael Finney of Flint was elected Student Government President last week during the Fall General Election. He received 250 of the 620 votes cast, while Nick Hallock was second with 212 votes and Vidya Chaddah had 82. New student vice president will be Joseph L. Slater, who garnered 320 votes compared with Steve Jacobs' 182. Incumbent treasurer David C. Dutcher was defeated by Therese Dunn, 330 to 262 votes.

Five dorm and five commuter students were elected to the student senate. Leading vote-getter was Michael B. Kilpatrick, followed by Jill Slasinski, Dana Daniels, Sandra B. Gilliam, Averetta Lewis, Bently J. Laser, Richard Gill, Ann Kozak, James Fehrman, and Margaret Murphy.

Proposals receiving student approval were those which allow for a majority vote of senators present to veto an allocation after senators have been notified of an allocation by official announcements placed in Senate mailboxes when classes are in session; for the student government President to run for office for two elective terms; and for executive election proceedings to begin 35 class days before the end of winter semester and senate election proceedings to begin within 45 days after the first day of school in fall semester.

LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP DESIGNED FOR SUPERVISORS

A Leadership Workshop with a survey feedback approach to assist managers in their development has been slated at SVSC for five Monday evenings beginning October 30. Instructor for the 7 p.m. - 10 p.m. sessions will be Dr. William Doll, chairman of the SVSC management department.

The workshop series is designed for persons with current supervisory responsibility for at least four people. Objectives are to help managers develop a more effective leadership style, along with a better understanding of how the people reporting to them feel about their job and the sources of motivation available to them.

Because of the workshop format, course enrollment will be limited to 15 participants so that each personal supervisor situation can be discussed and analyzed. Class members will work with other practicing managers, to exchange ideas and discuss specific techniques for improving their work group's performance.

The course registration includes a computerized survey of the participant's immediately subordinates, a "manager's guide" by Dr. Doll, and all course materials. Reservations can be made by phoning the division of placement and continuing education at 4066.

"We make the difference in the lives of those who need us, and there is no better way than the United Way," Ryder said.
