SVSC PLANS SECOND ANNUAL THUMB DAY

There will be 'thumb' doings going on at SVSC Wednesday, April 16. That's the day SVSC, in cooperation with 24 school districts from Michigan's Thumb area, hosts its second annual Thumb Day.

High school juniors from Tuscola, Huron and Sanilac counties have been invited to the college that day to see first-hand what SVSC has to offer and what college in general is like.

"We're going to show them what to expect from college, plus the career choices a college graduate has," says Jim Dwyer, Thumb Day coordinator and SVSC admissions representative. "We want to show them how to use what they have to the fullest."

Among events scheduled for the special day are a fair in Doan Center mall on campus with representatives from SVSC's financial aid office, placement, academic advisement, fraternities, sororities, student government, and other organizations.

Saginaw resident Jim O'Brien will speak on "How to be Successfully Motivated in College and Career." O'Brien, former director of Vocational Rehabilitation Services in Saginaw, has long been a promoter of success motivation and promises something the students will remember.

After lunch, the visitors will get a tour of the campus, and will be able to talk with current SVSC students from the Thumb about what SVSC is really like in terms of classes, professors, living on campus, and student life. They will also learn how to use their senior year of high school to better prepare for college.

SVSC faculty members will explain the various courses of study offered by SVSC and outline the job market for those disciplines, allowing students to obtain firsthand information about future careers.

"We're trying to show these juniors exactly what their lives will be like in a college setting, and what life can be like after they graduate," says Dwyer. "We're really excited about the possibilities these students can achieve, and we want Thumb Day to be a first step for them."

The day will last from 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. More details are available from Dwyer at ext. 4200.

KUJAWIAKI COMING APRIL 13

Set aside Sunday, April 13 for an afternoon of musical entertainment when the KUJAWIAKI dancers perform at the college theatre. Slated for 2:30 p.m., their appearance is sponsored by the Institute of Polish Studies and is open to the public.

The 40-member KUJAWIAKI (pronounced koo-ya-vya-kee) has performed throughout the United States and Poland for the past 14 years. Dedicated to preserving Polish folklore, they offer something for everyone, from foot-stomping polkas to lively oberek to the incredible gymnastic feats of the Polish Mountainers.

The performance includes eight regional selections which feature such themes as harvests, weddings, Christmas and Easter. Authentic and colorful costumes add visual recognize continuing SVSC students who have earned academic excellence and have contributed to the welfare of the college and community, honored students from fall 1979 to spring/summer 1980.

Fall 1979 winners include: Carole Boyd and Joyce Robbins of Saginaw and Roger Lonsway of Utica. Winners for the winter 1980 session are: Sandra Bergman of Cass City, Margaret Nietling of Chesaning, James Robbins of Gladwin, Karin Ryder of Saginaw, Lu Ann Satkowski of Kawkawlin, Lori Survant of Whitmore, Cheryl Wischmeyer of Bay City and Thaddeus Zylka of Standish. Mimi Smith of Saginaw received the spring/summer session 1980 award.

The awards provide $200 each to SVSC students for the 1980-81 academic year, and are not automatically renewable. A minimum 3.25 grade point average is required, along with evidence of leadership in college activities and attendance as a full-time student with at least a sophomore standing. Students apply for the awards through the office of the dean of students prior to each semester.

Current SVSC students who meet the above criteria may contact that office at ext. 4294 for further information and application details. Application deadline is April 15.

LADY CARDINALS OPEN SEASON TOMORROW

People who saw SVSC's softball team play last season can expect a big surprise this year. The Lady Cardinals were only 4-8 last spring, and they've taken a step up with the competition they'll be playing this year. But coach Ingrid Kupprat is confident that SVSC has the material to be a contender in its first year of Great Lakes Conference play.

Saginaw Valley opens its season Wednesday (April 2) with a 2:00 p.m. home game against Grand Valley State College. And Kupprat will not be facing two of the headaches she had last season. "We have a great deal of depth this year," she says, "and a lot more experience. Of course, our season is going to be tougher, too ... but I think we're up to the challenge."

Part of that challenge comes from a restructuring of the Michigan Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW) softball divisions. Last year, there were only two groups -- and SVSC was in the "Small-College" division. This season, however, the AIAW has set up three divisions based on number of scholarships offered. Saginaw Valley is in Division II -- along with some tough GLIAC competition like Ferris, Grand Valley and Lake Superior. But that extra experience and depth, says Kupprat, will make itself shown quickly -- especially in the infield and on the mound.

SVSC travels to Wayne State Thursday, then returns home for a Saturday game against Oakland University. The AIAW State Tourney is Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 1, 2 and 3 at Grand Valley.

WENDLER AT ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES CLASS

Dr. Paul Wendler, recently appointed by Gov. Milliken to the Michigan Natural Resources Council, will address Eldon Graham's Environmental Studies class this Wednesday, April 2, at 4:30 p.m. and all interested SVSC students, faculty and staff are invited. His topics, to be presented in Room 225 Pioneer Hall, are "Trends in the U.S. Environmental Quality Index" and "Goals and Activities of the Michigan Natural Resources Council."

The Environmental Quality Index is computed each year by the National Wildlife Federation, to show trends in the environmental quality of life. Wendler has served on the Board of Directors of the National Wildlife Federation, is manager of purchasing operations for G.M.'s Saginaw Steering Gear Division and is a former mayor of the City of Saginaw. He is an industrial manager active in conservation and environmental concerns. In 1978 he received an honorary doctorate degree from SVSC, in recognition of his dedication to civic and community activities and his support for SVSC.

MUDDY ROAST TICKETS STILL AVAILABLE

It's coming up next Friday, April 11, at 6:30 p.m. and tickets are still available. That's "Roast Our Buddy Muddy Waters" banquet, planned for Unity Hall at the Saginaw Civic Center. Sponsors are SVSC and the M.S.U. Tri-County Alumni Association. The event is open to all friends of SVSC's former athletic director and football coach, who recently moved on to M.S.U. as new head football coach. For ticket information, call ext. 4050.
"Teluric Influences on Andean Writers" will be the topic of this Wednesday's (April 2) Faculty Colloquium at noon in the large private dining room, Doan Center. Dr. Ricardo Pastor, associate professor of Spanish, will describe his research study in Bolivia which concentrated on Andean literature, to determine the influence of the land on writers. Admission is free and open to the public, with the talk to begin at 12:30 p.m. after participants go through the cafeteria line or consume a bag lunch.

LANGUAGE INITIATION SET

The SVSC chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma, a national honorary for college students of foreign languages will hold its new member initiation on campus Sunday, April 20, in Doan Center. SVSC's Theta Omicron chapter has representatives from French, German, Polish and Spanish programs of study.

The purpose of Alpha Mu Gamma is to promote excellence in language learning and to foster goodwill between people of different cultures.

Officers for 1980-1981 will be president Joan Kakouris of Saginaw, vice president Jill Mackelden of Saginaw, secretary-treasurer Teresa Trisch of Caro, and historian Susan Larson of Saginaw. Faculty adviser is Dr. David Barker, associate professor of French.

CAMPUS NOTES

Assistant professor of psychology Dr. David B. Schubot will present a research paper entitled "The Interactive Effects of Sex and Self-Monitoring on Leadership Ratings: A Conceptual Replication" at the annual meetings of the Midwestern Psychological Association in St. Louis, Missouri on May 1. The paper was coauthored by SVSC students Paul M. Kurecka, S. Mariah McClean, and Nancy R. Johnson.

St. Charles high school senior Ross Smith, son of director of sponsored programs M. S. "Cy" Smith, has been named to the Saginaw News First Team All-Area Class C Basketball team. He also won Honorable Mention distinction on the U. P. I. All-Michigan team. At St. Charles he averaged 19.8 points and 11.3 rebounds per game. Among players from schools of all classes in the area, Ross was in the top 15 scorers and set new school records for rebounds and shooting percentage from the floor.
