...Deferred Tuition Plan This Fall
...Franc A. Landee Award Nominees Sought
..."Sunday Brunch With the Bunch" Set

SPRING BREAK HERE NEXT WEEK

SVSC students and faculty members get a mid-semester breather next week, during the March 1-6 spring break. Library hours will be adjusted beginning this weekend. The library will be closed this Saturday and Sunday, February 27 and 28, and again on Saturday and Sunday, March 6 and 7. Library hours will be 8:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m. next Monday and Tuesday, March 1 and 2, and 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, March 3 and 4. Friday, March 5, hours will be 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. and normal library operations will be in effect when classes resume on Monday, March 8.

Bookstore hours for spring break will be 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. from Monday, March 1 through Friday, March 5.

The Doan Center cafeteria will be closed next week, but the snack bar will be open March 1-5 from 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m., to provide luncheon services for staff members who will be on campus during the break.

Because of spring break, the "Interior" will not appear next week but will resume publication with the Tuesday, March 9, issue. Copy deadline will be Friday, March 5, at 4:30 p.m.

KUUMBA ACTORS CANCEL

Injuries sustained in an auto accident have forced the Kuumba actors to cancel their appearance at SVSC. Their performance of "Kwanza - First Fruits" was set for 8:00 p.m. this Wednesday, February 24, in the theatre. No replacement has been scheduled.

DISTINGUISHED ALUM SOUGHT

SVSC's Alumni Association is accepting nominations for the Distinguished Alumni Award through this Friday, February 26. The annual award recognizes former SVSC students for outstanding contributions to the college or their community. Any graduate of SVSC is eligible. Nomination forms are available in the office of development and college relations. Call Mrs. Jo Stanley at ext. 4050 for more information.

MILITARY BAND MUSIC CONCERT READIED

A concert of military band music will be performed by the college wind band this Thursday, February 25, at 7:30 p.m. in the SVSC theatre. Director Jon C. Mitchell will direct the 40-piece ensemble as members perform a variety of works. Featured will be both "band classics" and some unfamiliar works.

Among military band pieces, the well-known "English Folk Song Suite" by Ralph Vaughan Williams will be played. Others include "An Original Suite" by Gordon Jacob, "British Eighth March" by Zo Elliot and "Marching Song" by Gustav Holst, which will be performed from a copy of Holst's original manuscript. This piece features the same treatment of material as his better known suites.

Representing military band works from the period of the French Revolution will be Francois-Joseph Gossec's "Marche Lugubre" and another untitled march. Two original band works by Finnish composer Jean Sibelius will be featured in the second half of the program. Both his "Suite" and "Tiera" call for a smaller instrumentation than other pieces in the concert.

Richard Wagner's powerful "Huldigungs-marsch," composed for the opening of his Bayreuth Theatre, will conclude the concert.

Tickets will be available at the door for $2 general admission or $1.50 for students. This rather unusual concert will be particularly of interest to persons who enjoy military music or marches.

DEFERRED TUITION PLAN COMING THIS FALL

SVSC students will be able to make tuition and fee payments on an installment basis starting this fall.

They will have the option of paying over a ten-month period through a tuition deferment plan, instead of having to make a full cash payment before becoming officially enrolled. In subsequent years, payments can be made over ten or twelve months.

There are no interest or finance charges for the plan, administered by Academic Management Services, Inc. (AMS). A $40 annual service fee is assessed by AMS to defray administrative and processing costs and to provide life benefit coverage.

Funds obtained through the program can be used only for tuition, fees and to meet dormitory expenses for college-operated halls. The plan can be coordinated with financial aid monies.

Serving as trustee for AMS tuition funds is the Old Stone Bank of Rhode Island. AMS covers its costs from interest earned during the 30 days between the time students remit payments to the plan and AMS reimburses the college.

"SVSC has approved this program because we realize the cost of higher education has increased dramatically in recent years and want to make the financial burden a little easier for students," notes James G. Muladore, budget director. "We do not presently have an accounts receivable program for tuition and fees and chose this plan over a number of others because we felt it was best for our students."

Muladore suggests that each student evaluate his or her own economic situation before deciding whether to choose the AMS plan. "While you would start paying earlier through AMS, it allows flexibility in budgeting resources by extending payments through the school year. You do not need all the money up front," he notes.

Information and applications will be mailed to all currently enrolled SVSC students the first week of May. AMS representatives may be contacted directly by phoning 1-800-556-6684.

LANDEE NOMINEES SOUGHT

The highest honor given to an educator for exceptional teaching skills is an award presented by the popular vote of his students and peers. That tradition continues here this spring as it has since 1968, when a professor will receive the Franc A. Landee Award for Excellence in Teaching for outstanding service and dedication to his profession.

Landee was a research chemist at Dow Chemical Company in Midland who also taught part-time at SVSC. Upon his death in 1968, a memorial fund was established to recognize an outstanding educator each year.

Nominations are now being accepted from present and past students, alumni, staff members and faculty for the award that will be presented during commencement ceremonies in May. One choice is indicated for the award along with written comments to support the nomination.

The selection committee whose members include Dr. James L. Mitchell, chairman; Timothy M. Lynch, alumnus; Jerry Hamling, Jr., student; Ted J. Walker, Board of Fellows; Dr. Walter R. Rathkamp, past Landee Award recipient; and Dr. William K. Barnett, chairman elect, will use selected guidelines to determine this year's award winner. A list of qualifications are used to select the recipient. The list includes determination of the nominee's ability to prepare students in a first-rate manner, possession of superior knowledge of the subject matter, has the ability to motivate students, maintains high standards of academic achievement, and displays sincerity and enthusiasm in teaching.

This year's candidates are: Accounting - John Clinkenbeard, Russell Gingras, Lawrence Kickham and Donald Wiseman; Art - Barron Hirsch and Matthew Zivich; Biology - David Dalgarn, Richard Koch, Charles Pelzer, Richard Trdan, and Gene Yang; Chemistry - Arthur Andrewes, George Eastland, Berner Gorden, Samuel Levine, Peter Moehs, and Albert Plausch; Criminal Justice - Donald Bachand and Jon Cisky; Economics - Donald Novey, Hong Youl Park and

Sam Sarkar; Education - Gamal Elashab, Susie Emond, Robert Meadows, Joseph Snider, Norman Sterchele and Kenneth Wahl; Education/English - Bernyce Smith and Leslie Whittaker; Engineering - Thomas Gillespie and Eldon Graham; English - Basil Clark, Rose Collamer, Kay Harley, W. Thomas Hearron, William Smith, Gary Thompson, Raymond Tyner and Mason Wang; Finance/Law - William Elliott, Wayne Mackie and Dwight Means; History - Robert Braddock, William Hoffman, John Jozierski, Eric Petersen, Thomas Renna and John Willertz; Management - Albert Busch; Marketing - Shiv Arora and Frederick Webster; Mathematics - David DeSautel, Diana Dowling, Joseph Matti, John Mooningham and Rose Novey; Modern Foreign Languages - David Barker, Anna Dadlez, Lynn Herkstroeter and Jose Ricardo Pastor; Music - Charles Brown and Eric Nisula; Nursing - Janalou Blecke, Deborah Bowman, Lois Deleruyelle, Margaret Flatt, Mary Graiver, and Marcia Shannon; Philosophy - David Rayfield; Physical Education - Douglas Hansen and Robert Pratt; Physics - Hsuan Chen and Suk-Koo Yun; Political Science - O. Zeller Robertson and David Weaver; Psychology - Margaret Cappone, Joy Hargrove, Merlyn Mondol and Janet Robinson; Sociology - James Ford, G. Alexander Ross, Robert Thaler and Harriet Tillock; Speech and Theatre - William Gourd.

Ballots are available from Dr. James L. Mitchell, chairman, 348 Wickes Hall, or by phoning ext. 4064. Deadline for ballot returns is March 5, 1982.

NEH ANNOUNCES $2,500 STIPENDS

Fifty-eight eight-week sessions will be offered by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) through its Summer 1982 Seminars for Teachers Program. Advanced study and research opportunities in the teachers' own fields or in fields related to their interests are provided through the NEH program. Participants receive a $2,500 stipend for travel to and from the seminar site, and for research and living expenses. Each seminar accommodates 12 teachers.

Application deadline for the 1982 program is April 1, with awards to be announced by seminar directors on April 20. For details, please phone John Rummel at 4054.

"SUNDAY BRUNCH WITH THE BUNCH" COMING MARCH 14

You're invited to bring your family and friends, to get together with other members of the SVSC "family" for a reasonably priced Sunday brunch starting on March 14. From 11:00 a.m.-1:30 p.m., you will have an opportunity to enjoy good food along with a little togetherness.

Along with a sumptuous selection of beautiful and tasty salads and desserts, Chef John Curry will be presenting a variety of mouth-watering delicacies. The menu will be rotated each three weeks. For example, one week there will be carved top round of beef au jus, baked chicken, steak fries, green beans almonline, scrambled eggs, cheddar scrambled eggs, fried eggs to order and waffles with syrup. Another menu will include carved baked country ham with pineapple and raisin sauce, browned link sausage, hash brown potatoes, broccoli in cheese sauce, fried, scrambled and Irish scrambled eggs with bacon and mushrooms and pancakes with syrup.

Still another menu will present carved turkey with dressing and gravy, poached fish with butter and lemon sauce, home fried potatoes, peas with mushrooms, fried or scrambled eggs and western scrambled eggs with peppers and onions as well as pineapple fritters.

Reservations will not be required and the price will be $4.75 for adults, $3.75 for those over 60, $2.75 for children between the ages of 5 and 10, with free admission for children aged 4 and under. High chairs and booster seats will be available, and free parking will be provided for guests on Lot C.

Everything will taste good and will be in good taste--except for some of John Curry's jokes!

MIDLAND RESIDENTS OFFERED VAN SERVICE TO CAMPUS

Van service from Midland's Ashman Circle to SVSC is being considered if enough interest exists. As a beginning point, consideration is being given to leaving the Circle about 7:20 a.m. and arriving at SVSC about 7:50 a.m. Probable cost for a one-way trip would be about 75¢. Cindy Conway, of the School of Science, Engineering, and Technology, is presently polling SVSC employees and students who might be interested in this commuter service. She would also like to know if only one time slot is established, would you occasionally consider riding one way or both ways on an irregular basis. To get your vote counted on possible commuter service, please call Cindy at extension 4144.

ACROSS CAMPUS

-- Special assistant to the President Dr. Guy M. Lee, Jr., has been named to the Allocation and Budget Committee for the United Way of Saginaw County. This committee serves as a budget review panel for agencies served by the United Way and makes recommendations to its executive committee for expenditures.

-- The Data Processing Management Association, Saginaw Valley Chapter, will host the "Great Lakes Computer Expo '82" show at the Saginaw Civic Center next November 9 and 10. Assistant Director of Computer Services, Don Seidel, asks that you inform him of any groups which are or ought to be interested in uses of computers, so that he can send them information about the show. In addition, your help in publicizing the show will be appreciated. For details, please call Don at extension 4220.

-- Ask Rosalie Troester what's new these days, and you'll note her enthusiasm for the "Hemlock Historical Heritage Series" which begins this evening. She is assisting Hemlock residents with planning for the locally-based humanities program. The six-part series is modeled after a similar program presented in Saginaw last fall. Mrs. Troester, and other Chrysallis personnel, worked with a Saginaw committee to develop the successful series, which is now being adapted for a locally based Hemlock series. Meetings will be held from 7:30-9:30 p.m. Tuesday evenings in the Hemlock Middle School cafeteria and will trace the geology, archeology and history of Richland and Freemont townships. Video tapes, illustrated lectures, panel discussions and a "museum night" will present the agricultural, business, political, religious, educational, and social aspects of area culture.

-- Director of Information Services John Rummel has just completed work as chairman of the school building committee for St. Michael's Lutheran School in Richville, where he also serves as president of the church council. The $640,000 project added four classrooms, a large library/media center, offices, shower and locker rooms plus a canopied front entrance and circular drive to the school. John also was recently elected secretary of the Michigan Alumni Council, which represents development, alumni and fund raising persons, and he was re-elected to the Michigan 4-H Developmental Committee in January.

-- A supply of printed campus maps without the current campus profile will be available shortly from the Central Stores office. These are to be used instead of making photocopies when maps are needed to show guests where activities or classes are located. There will be no charge for the maps, which can be obtained by phoning ext. 4275. For copies of the four-page Profile and Campus Map, please contact the Admissions Office at ext. 4200.

-- Do you want to help "spread the word" that SVSC is here? Your front license plate location can serve as an effective billboard when you have an attractive red and white SVSC license plate on your car. A new supply of plates is now available by phoning ext. 4054. Another embossed version of the plate is being sold by the SVSC Bookstore and features the SVSC Cardinal with red outline and lettering on a white background.

-- Representatives from more than 40 Michigan colleges and universities met at the University of Michigan last Thursday to express concern for the future of federal support of student financial aid. The group unanimously passed a resolution urging citizens of Michigan to contact their senators and representatives and let them know that full financial aid cutbacks as currently proposed would have a tremendous impact on access to higher education for many American families. "Just as there is an appropriate level for national investment in physical capital, so too there is an appropriate level for a national investment in human capital. The proposed financial aid cuts will have the result of decreasing our national investment in human capital to an unacceptably low level," the resolution said.
