GOOD FRIDAY CONCERT OFFERS VARIED MENU

There's something to please every musical taste in the "Good Friday Concert" at SVSC on Friday, April 9. SVSC choirs will be joined by the concert band, wind band and brass ensemble for a 7:30 p.m. performance in the college theater.

Dr. Jon Mitchell and Dr. Eric Nisula, directors of the musical groups, have put together a varied program including Easter music by Brahms, devitioria and Stravinsky, plus spring music of renewal by Haydn, Dvorak and Vaughn Williams.

Highlight of the concert will be selections from the popular rock concert "Godspell" by Stephen Schwartz. Accompaniment is by a professional rock band with Mike Brush at the keyboard, Bob Grunder on drums, Dave Carmona on bass and guitar by Jeff Walikangas.

Vocal solos include "Prepare Ye the Way of the Lord," by tenor Tim Krzyzaniak; "Day by Day" by Angela Durbin, soprano, and "Finale" by Ray Bugg, tenor. Other selections from "Godspell" include "All Good Gifts," "Light of the World," "Turn Back, O Man," and "We Beseech Thee."

Rounding out the musical evening will be the SVSC wind band performing music for Good Friday. Featured are compositions by Catel and Berloz.

Concert tickets are $2 general admission or $1.50 for students and senior citizens. For more information, please call fine arts office at ext. 4159.

TWO GUBERNATORIAL CANDIDATES TO APPEAR

Although Michigan's August 3 primary election is still far away, two gubernatorial candidates will be visiting the SVSC campus this month.

Perennial candidate Zolton Ferency will speak at 3:00 p.m. on Thursday, April 8, at the theatre. Coming to lower level Doan Center on Thursday, April 15, at 2:00 p.m. will be former state senator William Fitzgerald.

The general public is welcomed to both of the sessions, which are planned by the SVSC Democrats Club. A similar series for Republican candidates will take place later this spring and is being coordinated by the campus Young Republicans group.

Ferency has urged a return to the economic and social reforms championed by his party during the 1930's. An MSU professor, he seeks a new reliance on public enterprise to create jobs and economic equity. Ferency would like to see the creation of a state-owned bank, a graduated income tax system, promotion of women's rights and a guarantee that all workers would have the right to strike.

Fitzgerald was chairman of the House Committee on economic development and was majority leader in the state senate from 1975-77. He sponsored the Michigan Economic Action Council and developed the concept of a budget stabilization fund, to help reduce the cyclical nature of Michigan's economy.

Both sessions are free and will provide opportunities for audience questions to the candidates.

CITIZEN ACTION URGED TO EXAMINE CUTS IN AID TO EDUCATION

SVSC president Jack M. Ryder, student government president Jerry Hamling and other concerned SVSC administrators are encouraging interested citizens to contact elected officials with their views on proposed cuts in federal aid for higher education.

Hamling notes that proposed cuts could cost Michigan students up to $60 million in federal grants, work-study funds and loans next year if the budget proposed by President Reagan is accepted. "Political pressure from parents, employers, and others outside the educational community carries great weight with legislators," he notes.

Ryder adds that "the additional burden of federal aid cuts on top of a 12 percent reduction in state funding this year could make college too expensive for many students." He asks that concerned persons send personal letters to their Michigan congressmen, or call the "White House Public Opinion Poll" at (202) 456-7639.

Those writing letters are reminded that a personal letter does more to influence opinion than a form or group letter. In preparing a communication, outline your own situation. Tell how the proposed cuts will affect you and your family. Let legislators know how you feel about President Reagan's program, and indicate whether you are willing to pay the necessary taxes to support continuation of financial aid at present levels.

CALLIGRAPHY COURSE OFFERED AT SVSC

Persons interested in learning or improving skills in italic hand lettering can register for a 7-week course in calligraphy offered by SVSC. "Introduction to Calligraphy" begins Thursday evening, April 15, and continues through May 27. It is open to the public, and admission to SVSC is not required.

Instructor Joan Schroeder has designed the non-credit class for beginners, as well as those with some experience in hand lettering. She will work individually with advanced students.
Schroeder holds a degree in art from Whitworth College, Spokane, Washington, and did graduate work at the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. There she studied calligraphy under Donald Jackson, royal calligrapher for Queen Elizabeth and president of the British Society of Scribes and Illuminators. She has exhibited her work in Minnesota, California and Michigan and has taught at the Midland Center for the Arts and the University of Idaho. She was also an active participant in the 1981 First International Calligrapher’s Conference at St. John’s University.

Her SVSC class will meet Thursday evenings from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at the SVSC arts workshop. Pre-registration is advised and may be arranged by calling the fine arts secretary weekdays between 9:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. at ext. 4159.

LIFE AFTER COLLEGE -- DOES IT EXIST?

To those who think college comprises the "best days of your life," actor Bill Alexander points out that years spent in the ivy covered halls of higher education can be filled with trauma.

Portraying a hassled student in "Is There Life After College?", he begins with the struggle to be admitted to the institution of his choice and proceeds through four years filled with equal parts of fun and frustration.

Alexander is bringing the one-actor play to SVSC on Wednesday, April 14. Curtain time is 8:00 p.m. in the college theatre.

"Is There Life" takes an irreverent, but often insightful, look at higher education. It follows the hero from his senior year in high school as he interviews for admission to college, through his senior year in college. Then once again he is interviewing, this time for a job.

Along the way the audience meets his friends, including Al, with the pet amoeba. There are also the typical college stereotypes, like Jock, who wears a letter on his sweater to remind him which team he's on; or the "Pre-Med," whose conversation is limited to "What grade did you pull?"

Viewers share his anxiety as his parents arrive for their first campus visit and commiserate when he pulls yet another "all nighter" during finals week. Somehow, through it all, he keeps his sense of humor yet manages to take his education seriously.

New York comedy writer Andy Goodman is the author of "Is There Life." His lighthearted look at undergraduate life is fast-paced and can be enjoyed by anyone who has ever been in college, or knows a college student.

SVSC's program board is sponsoring the performance, which is free for SVSC students with I.D. Faculty, staff, senior citizens and students from other institutions may attend for $1, and general admission is $2.

WOMEN GRADS AND STAFF HONORED

1981-82 women graduates and faculty members of SVSC will be honored Wednesday, April 21, at a coffee co-sponsored by the Chrysallis Center and the American Association of University Women, Saginaw branch. Refreshments will be served from 1:00-4:00 p.m. in the Chrysallis Center, room 15 in Project '68 building. All members of the campus community are invited to join in recognizing the accomplishments of SVSC women.

COME MUNCH "SUNDAY BRUNCH WITH THE BUNCH"

If you haven't yet brought your family to join the SVSC "family" for a Sunday brunch, time is running short. John Curry will be hosting another of his delicious meals this week beginning at 11:00 a.m. in Doan Center. The series will close April 21.

There's a different menu each week, featuring such Curry specialties as baked country ham with apple and raisin sauce, browned link sausage, broccoli in cheese sauce, Irish scrambled eggs with bacon and mushrooms, poached fish with butter and lemon sauce, western scrambled eggs, and pineapple fritters. But the best news is the reasonable price -- just $4.75 for adults, $3.75 for persons over 60, $2.75 for children between the ages of five and ten, and free admission for children four and under. High chairs and booster seats will be available, with free parking provided in lot "C" next to Doan. Reservations are not necessary, so gather the clan -- or your hungry friends -- and join the Sunday bunch at Doan!

KITE FLYING CONTEST RESCHEDULED

Too much of a good thing can be as bad as too little, according to organizers of SVSC's kite flying contest. Saturday's high winds forced a rescheduling of the event, now set for this Saturday, April 10, at 10:00 a.m.
