"STATE OF THE COLLEGE ADDRESS" SET FOR MARCH 7

President Jack M. Ryder will present his annual "State of the College Address at 12:30 p.m. on Monday, March 7 in lower level Doan Center. All SVSC faculty, staff and administrators are encouraged to attend the meeting to learn about the challenges we will encounter in coming months.

Public contact areas should be staffed during the meeting time. Where possible, student or part-time employees may be used to answer phones and handle normal business.

SVSC TO HONOR OUTSTANDING EDUCATOR

SVSC is seeking nominations for its top faculty honor, the Franc A. Landee Award for Excellence in Teaching. The annual award is presented to a professor who demonstrates superior knowledge of subject matter, prepares students academically, displays sincerity and relates classroom learning to real life.

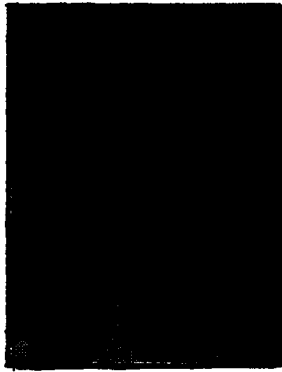

This year 90 faculty members are eligible for nomination. Ballots are available from selection committee chairman Dr. William K. Barnett, dean of arts and behavioral sciences, and must be returned to him by March 15. The Landee Award recipient will be honored during commencement exercises in May and will receive a special plaque, $500 and other honors.

Franc A. Landee was a research chemist at Dow Chemical Company who also taught part-time at SVSC. Upon his death in 1968, a memorial fund was established for the purpose of giving recognition each year to an outstanding educator.

Eligible faculty members include: Accounting - John Clinkenbeard, Lawrence Kickham

Amy C. Millette named to new position

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT
INSTITUTE NAMES COORDINATOR

Amy C. Millette has been named coordinator for the Business and Industrial Development Institute at SVSC. Her appointment was effective February 21.

Ms. Millette's responsibilities include supervision of preliminary interviews with entrepreneurs seeking assistance from BIDI, and providing client guidance in the use of SVSC library facilities and research techniques. She will maintain communication with entrepreneurs to provide follow-up service and evaluate the effectiveness of SVSC/BIDI services.

Other duties include participation in program planning, coordination of efforts to meet requirements of any grants obtained by BIDI, and interaction with the business community and SVSC faculty. She will report to Dr. Leonard F. Herk, director of BIDI.

For the past nine months, Millette has served as acting coordinator of sponsored programs at SVSC. Prior to joining the SVSC staff in 1981, she was employed by Millette and Associates, and before that by Gibson Greeting Cards.

She is a graduate of Miami University, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts in English with emphasis on creative writing. A Bay City resident, she recently married Dennis Ferguson.

Amy's office is located in Wickes Annex, and she may be reached at ext. 4048.

'INTERIOR' TO TAKE BREAK

The next issue of the 'Interior' will be published March 8, following spring break. Information received by March 4 will appear then.

SPORTS REPORT

SVSC's bowling team took its first step towards what coach Ted Nitz hopes will be a national championship by winning the MICB Saturday. The SVSC kegglers amassed 6,433 points in two rounds, blanking both the U of M-Flint and Eastern Michigan University. They also set a school record by averaging 214.7 per man per game for the six-game session, and had three bowlers with 700s. The league title gives SVSC an automatic berth in the National Collegiate sectionals in Detroit in April.

The Cardinals men's track team won the District 23 championship for the sixth straight year at Siena Heights Friday. SVSC finished with 267 points, winning 10 of 17 events. Eddie Brown was a quadruple winner and set a new field house record in the triple jump with a leap of 47 feet, 7 3/4 inches. The men's defense of their NAIA crown begins Friday in Kansas City.

The Lady Cards track team also swept the District 23 championships with 113 points to 54 for second place Hillsdale. Kelly Vasold was a triple winner, with Cindy Reinhart, Colleen Booms and Cheryl Gulli each posting double wins. Sue Priemer and Sue Gay also chipped in with victories.

The Lady Cardinal basketball team rolled to lopsided 98-44 victory over Hillsdale's women Thursday, but lost a 62-61 squeaker to Grand Valley on Saturday. The Lady Cards, now 12-2 in the GLIAC and 19-4 overall, are one game behind league leader Oakland University. They will host Oakland Saturday for a game likely to decide the conference championship.

SVSC men's basketball team also split last week, pulling out a last-second 76-74 win over Hillsdale on Thursday, but losing to Grand Valley by a 10-point margin Saturday. The 92-82 loss to GVSC left the Cards still in the running for a share of the conference title, since league-leader Ferris was beaten by Hillsdale Saturday.

SVSC's first year of post-NCAA wrestling competition led to a wild-card berth in the Division II national tournament for freshman Darrell Burchfield. The 118-pounder beat an All-American to earn the trip. Craig Gavette and Scott Strickler each posted a 1-2 record in the Saturday regionals at Ferris.

VFS PRESENTS ITALIAN NEO-REALISM CLASSIC

A film considered to be one of the finest examples of Italian neo-realism will be presented when the Valley Film Society hosts its first feature of March. "Umberto D." will be shown on Friday, March 4 at 8:00 p.m. in Wickes lecture hall. The 1952 film follows the struggle of a retired government agent trying to maintain his dignity on a tiny pension.

Pro-rated memberships are available at the door. A membership good for eight admissions can be purchased for $8.50. For more information, please contact Dr. Thomas Hearron at ext. 4332.

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION CHECK-OFF

Catalog librarian Kathy Lewis would like to remind the SVSC community of a new addition to state tax returns. There is a box on forms this year which allows those receiving a refund to donate $2 ($4 on joint returns) for child abuse prevention. Funds collected from the check-off will be placed in a children's trust fund, with half the money collected each year to be invested and the other half used by local child abuse programs. For more information, call Dwight Lewis at 799-2821.

SVSC COMMENCEMENT APPROACHING

SVSC will be conducting its 18th annual commencement on Saturday, May 7 and Dr. A. Jefferson Sharp, vice president for development and college relations, is requesting campus-wide participation. Faculty and staff are invited to don robes and join the procession. The bookstore will be taking orders for academic regalia from March 7 to 11. Measuring will be done in the bookstore between 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. If you plan on attending commencement, please fill out the form that will be circulated this week, or call Betty Wineland at ext. 4277.

FOOD DRIVE IN HIGH GEAR

Student Government's food and clothing drive is in full swing and the organization is asking all SVSC community members to donate items to help the many cold and hungry in our area. There is a collection box located at the student government office.

-SOCIAL WORK FIELD PLACEMENT ROUNDUP

Faculty dealing with students in the social work department should remind them that anyone planning to enroll in the field placement course (SW 494, Fall '83) must attend the field placement roundup. It will be held on Wednesday, March 23 from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the large private dining room in Doan. Agencies, the placement process and student interests will be discussed. Agency personnel will also be on campus Friday, April 15 to discuss field work opportunities. For more information, call Nellie Monroe, assistant professor of social work, at ext. 4076 or 792-4777.

PRIORITY SCHEDULING PERIOD ENDS

Scheduling coordinator Liz Kornacki would like faculty and staff to be aware that the priority period for advanced scheduling is now over. All scheduling for events taking place before September 1, 1984 are now on a first come, first serve basis. If you have events not yet scheduled or questions about scheduling policy, call Liz at ext. 4348.

SNACK BAR CLOSED

Due to spring break, the Doan snack bar will be closed from Saturday, February 26, through Sunday, March 6. It will reopen at 8:00 a.m. on Monday, March 7.

ACROSS CAMPUS--

--Artwork by Dr. Barron Hirsch, chairman of SVSC's art department, was accepted in the second annual Michigan Print Competition. His print was one of 50 selected from over 175 entries. The exhibit, judged by Warrington Colescott, professor of printmaking at the University of Wisconsin, is now at the Alma College Art Gallery. It will later travel throughout the state.

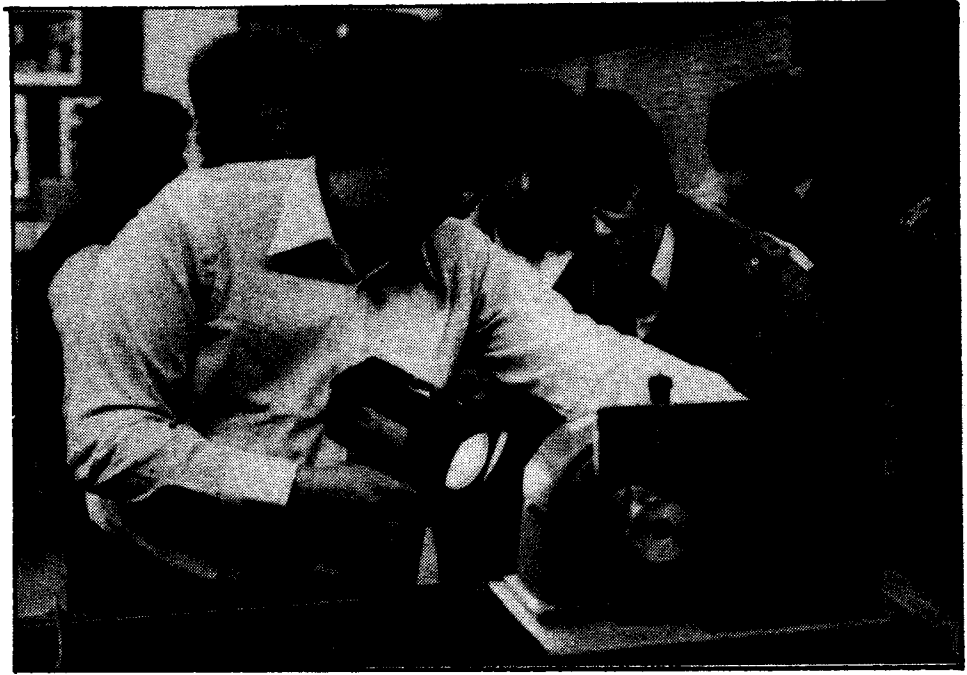

PERSONNEL

ADMINISTRATIVE SECRETARY - LIBRARY Full-time, temporary position (to replace employee on indefinite sick leave). Level 5, $5.30 per hour. Available immediately.

SVSC is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer and is non-discriminatory in its policies and practices.

A variety of demonstrations showed hundreds of area high school students who attended SVSC's Science Open House last Friday that the world of science has many facets. Students also received practical information about careers in science and observed the many tools of a scientist's trade. Others took the final exam in SVSC's math olympics, competing for scholarships and prizes.

In the photo to the right, SVSC student Ken Wightman uses a strobe light to freeze motion of a turbine in a pelton wheel.

SVSC President Jack M. Ryder is among the first to receive an autographed copy of "The Art of Rock and Roll" from author/professor Charles T. Brown. Students, faculty, staff and other friends attended the February 15 autograph party for Brown in the SVSC bookstore.
