Entertainment,
Education & More!

FALL 1983

CALENDAR
OF EVENTS
There's a lot more happening at SVSC than just classes and studying. We offer a wide range of entertainment — be it the arts or thought-provoking speakers and programs. There are plays, concerts, films, sports and events for high school students. SVSC's low admission fares of $1 to $3 provide some of the best entertainment bargains in the Saginaw Valley and many of the events are free. Come join us and see how much fun the arts and education can be!

Auditions for “Shadow Box”
The five female and four male roles for this SVSC Theatre production are open to community performers as well as SVSC students, faculty and staff. Backstage and crew workers are also welcome.

Kramer and Co. Magic Show
An SVSC favorite, this master illusionist will perform such amazing feats as cremating his assistant and buzz sawing her in half. Kramer will also conduct a workshop at 3:00 p.m. Tickets are $2 general admission, $1 for non-SVSC students and senior citizens.

“Let’s Have Lunch Sometime”
Premiere performance of a play written by Saginaw’s own Stuart Gross. The drama follows one man’s difficulty coping with a new lifestyle brought about by retirement. The production stars Tom Eynon of TV-5 and Dorthy Rogoza, well known for her work with the Pit and Balcony theatre. Tickets are $7 for opening night, which includes a post-production reception, and $4 for all other performances.

“Shadow Box”
Michael Cristofer’s play, set in a hospice resort, examines the drama of three terminally ill people struggling to accept their deaths. The production is directed by Jim Gaertner, long involved with Saginaw’s Pit and Balcony theatre.

For reservations or ticket information about “Let’s Have Lunch Sometime” phone 790-4264. Call 790-4110 for “Shadow Box” tickets and information, and for “Kramer and Co.” call 790-4260.

SVSC Christmas Concert
SVSC’s concert choir will join the Bay Chorale in the performance of Mozart’s “Grand Mass in C Minor” for double chorus, soloists and orchestra. Included in the concert is the Bell Choir of First Presbyterian Church of Bay City and a traditional carol sing.

The Cardinal Marching Band will also be performing at the Caro Pumpkin Festival Parade on October 9 and in the Saginaw Pride Parade, November 20. Tickets for SVSC musical performances in the theatre are $2 for adults and $1.50 for students and senior citizens. For reservation or ticket information, call SVSC fine arts office at 790-4159.

SVSC 20TH ANNIVERSARY WEEK

November 6-12
“Developing Mindpower for Tomorrow’s Challenges”
After 20 years of progress and growth, SVSC is celebrating its commitment to education and our region. We’re planning a week of events and programs and want to share them with the people who’ve made SVSC possible — you! There will be lectures, foreign language day, an ethnic event and open houses. The events will culminate on Friday when SVSC breaks ground for Instructional Facility 2, a 208,399 gross square foot complex that will house needed science labs, classrooms, offices and a new library. The public is cordially invited to attend the groundbreaking ceremony at 2:00 p.m. and the reception immediately following.

For more information on this special week, call the office of information services at 790-4054.
Saginaw Valley Bridge Club Tournament
The Saginaw Valley Bridge Club is conducting a tournament open to interested players from throughout the area. Fees are $4 to $5 per session. For more information, contact Dr. William Barnett at 790-4063.

SVSC Family Day
A special day is planned for the parents and families of SVSC students. There will be tours, movies, a home football game and a performance by the amazing Houdini-like escape artist, Don Viano. For information call MaryAnne Lustgraaf at 790-4260.

SVSC Annual Health Fair
There'll be health tips and tests from head to toe at this event stressing preventive medicine. Tests for blood pressure, hearing and vision will be available, as well as information on many health topics. Contact MaryAnne Lustgraaf for details at 790-4260. Admission is free.

Cardinal Run
Join in this fun, fund-raising event and RUN! Participants sign up pledges for completing laps around SVSC's Morley Field track. Profits are split between community organizations and SVSC's athletic department. For more information, call Pam Binder at 790-4165.

"America the Poisoned"
Noted author and conservationist Lewis Regenstein will discuss his book detailing the hazards of toxic waste and use of dangerous chemicals. $2 general admission, $1 for non-SVSC students and seniors. Call the Campus Activities Office at 790-4260 for details.

October 12
8:00 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

“America The Poisoned:” A Reply
Fred H. Tschirley, pesticide coordinator for the department of botany and plant pathology at Michigan State University, will discuss “Chemicals in the environment: Their Risks and Benefits.” Tschirley feels the problems with chemicals and pesticides has been overstated by the press. Free admission.

Lunch With Luther
Meet reformer Martin Luther, in the person of local ALC minister Rev. Lyle Kleman. He'll present a view of Luther's life, conversion and personality, including Luther's sometimes earthy feelings on baptism, the church, Europe of the 1500's, and the devil. Bring your own lunch and join us. Free Admission.

Helen Hudson
This talented singer and songwriter performs only her own material and has garnered kudos across the country. She has performed with B.J. Thomas, Don McLean, and Tom T. Hall and has a repertoire of humorous and thought-provoking songs. Free admission.

"The Last Few Frames"
The later years of life as reflected in montage and collage. An exhibit by SVSC Publications Designer Lindy Babcock. Call the SVSC fine arts office at 790-4159 for gallery hours.

The SVSC Observatory will be hosting open houses during many clear evenings this fall. Guests can view the skies through a 16-inch Kassegrain telescope. Admission is free and groups are welcome. For more information, contact Dr. Frank Chen, 790-4317.
SPORTS

SVSC's Cardinals have one of the top sports programs in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA). In 1982-83, the men's program placed second in the All-Sports competition while the women were also in the top ten. The NAIA has 510 member schools competing in the men's division and 283 affiliated with women's sports.

It'll be a challenging fall for Cardinal sports. The cross country team should again be a contender for the national title, while first year Head Football Coach George Ihler, (formerly of Saginaw Arthur Hill High School) hopes to rebuild a winning team. A third straight trip to the nationals is on the minds of the women's tennis team, and the women's volleyball team has an enthusiastic new coach and fresh talent.

So if you're looking for exciting sports competition, watch the Cardinals. For a complete schedule, call the SVSC Athletic Center at 790-4114 or the Sports Information Office at 790-4053. For your convenience, dates of home events are listed below.
