ARTS PATRON AND LEGISLATOR TO RECEIVE HONORARY DEGREES

Martha Goldsworthy Arnold and Rep. James E. O'Neill, Jr., will receive honorary doctor's degrees as part of graduation ceremonies this week. Commencement exercises are scheduled for 1:30 p.m., Saturday, April 28 in the Cardinal gymnasium.

Mrs. Arnold will receive an Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree. Long active in community arts programs, she has served on the board of directors of the Midland Center for the Arts (MCFTA) since 1966. For 20 years she was chairman of the Midland Community Concert Society of MCFTA, and she is a former member of the board of the Midland Symphony Orchestra Society.

An accomplished organist, Mrs. Arnold served for 35 years as director of music at the Memorial Presbyterian Church in Midland, and is now Director Emeritus. She was a member of the planning committee of the Church Music Workshop at Michigan State University for many years, and is a member and former dean of the Saginaw Valley Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

In 1975 Mrs. Arnold received the Midland Musician of the Year award from the Midland Music Society. She has been a member and former president of the Midland Community Affairs Council, and is president of the Charles J. Strosacker Foundation of Midland.

Mrs. Arnold earned a Bachelor of Music degree from Baldwin-Wallace College, Berea, Ohio, and was a teacher of piano and organ for many years. She is a life member of Mu Phi Epsilon honorary music society. Since 1974 Mrs. Arnold has been a member of the Board of Trustees of Baldwin-Wallace College, and she received an Honorary Doctor of Fine Arts degree from Baldwin-Wallace in 1971.

Her memberships include Midland Country Club, Twentieth Century Club, Chippewa Nature Center, and Midland King's Daughters and Sons. She is married to James B. Arnold, retired chemical engineer from The Dow Chemical Company.

Representative O'Neill will be awarded an Honorary Doctor of Laws degree. O'Neill represents Michigan's 85th District. He is a lifelong resident of Saginaw and attended Saginaw public and parochial schools before receiving an A.B. degree in English and political science from Central Michigan University. He completed a Master of Arts in school administration at the University of Michigan.

After three years of classroom teaching, O'Neill served as elementary and junior high principal for ten years. During this period, he held positions as vice-president and president of the Saginaw County Elementary and Junior High School Principals' Association.

First elected to the House of Representatives in 1966, O'Neill has been re-elected eight times. He served as Democratic Personnel Director in the House, and as Democratic Majority Whip. He was Associate Speaker Pro Tempore for the 1973–74 and 1975–76 sessions.

A member of the Education Commission of the United States, he was appointed to the Educational Block Grant Advisory Committee in 1982. Currently he is chairman of the Subcommittee on K-12 and Department of Education of the House Appropriations Committee. He also is chairman of the Joint Committee on Capital Outlay, a member of the House Appropriations Committee and Co-Chairman of the Speakers Ad Hoc Committee on K-12.

O'Neill is a member of St. Stephen's Catholic Church, American Legion Post 439, N.A.A.C.P., Sigma Tau Delta honorary English fraternity, Saginaw Fordney Club, Saginaw Pioneer Club, St. Mary's Cathedral Athletic Association, Brothers of Kosciuzko Pulaski Club, Germania Club of Saginaw, and the Tri-County Irish American Club. He has two children, Margaret Ruth and James E. O'Neill III.

Other awards to be presented at commencement include the Distinguished Alumni Award and the Landee Award for Excellence in Teaching. Degrees will be conferred on 1983/84 graduates, with 523 eligible to receive diplomas. Degrees earned include 63 Master of Arts in Teaching, 25 Master of Business Administration, 152 Bachelor of Arts, 88 Bachelor of Science, 23 Bachelor of Social Work, 134 Bachelor of Business Administration, and 38 Bachelor of Science in Nursing.

DIRECTOR OF SPONSORED PROGRAMS NAMED

Dr. Ralph K. Coppola has been named Director of Sponsored Programs, effective July 1, 1984. Coppola was selected from a field of more than 30 applicants. As director of Sponsored Programs, he will be responsible for coordinating the preparation of grant applications for the college. "An important factor of the position will include the ability to identify potential funding sources and to develop motivational tactics that encourage the pursuit of those sources," said Dr. Robert S. P. Yien, vice president for academic affairs.

Coppola also will serve as grants administrator to monitor compliance with requirements of any grants that receive funding. Additional duties involve serving as liaison with public and private grant agencies and maintaining reference materials on available grants.

Coppola comes to SVSC from the Institute of Humanist Studies in East Orange, New Jersey, where he has been serving as associate executive director. The Institute is a non-profit consulting organization that has developed numerous educational and training programs for its constituents. Prior to his work with the institute, Coppola was an instructor at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ, and a team leader and social studies teacher at Malcolm X. Shabazz High School in Newark.

Coppola earned a Bachelor of Arts in history from Windham College, Putney, VT. His Ed.M. and Ed.D. were received from Rutgers University. He is a member of Kappa Delta Pi national honor society for education, the American Sociological Association, and the New Jersey Sociological Society. He received the "Master Teacher" award from Rutgers University. He has written numerous proposals for human development programs, arranged major conferences, and edited several publications.

The position of sponsored programs director at SVSC has been vacant for several months. In the interim, responsibility for grants activities has been shared by Dr. William Barnett, dean of arts and behavioral sciences; Amy Ferguson, Business and Industrial Development Institute coordinator; and Dr. Crystal Lange, dean of nursing and allied health sciences.
SVSC PERSONNEL ADDRESS SUBCOMMITTEE

Saginaw Valley State College is poised for continued growth and service to this region of Michigan, President Jack M. Ryder told members of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Higher Education. Meeting in Mt. Pleasant on April 13, committee members asked Ryder to review the expansion of campus facilities, cooperative arrangements with other colleges, and the College's ten year history of unbroken enrollment growth.

Ryder emphasized that most SVSC students would not be able to complete a college degree were it not for the existence of SVSC. Because of changes in business and industry, and the large population base in the Saginaw Valley, SVSC will not lose enrollment in the near future, Ryder said.

Student Government president Dallas Moesman verified Ryder's contention that quality teaching distinguishes SVSC faculty. Ryder stressed the College's success in preserving a strong core of liberal arts courses in programs while simultaneously developing programs in nursing, engineering, business and education. He noted that programs have been expanded slowly, with improvement to existing programs before development of new curricula.

Ryder said that state appropriations have failed to keep pace with enrollment increases. The result has been steep increases in tuition rates which now threaten access to education. SVSC has requested a 16.8 percent increase in state appropriations for the coming fiscal year, and Ryder has called for "orderly implementation of a plan to channel additional appropriations to colleges with growing enrollments." College officials also have requested a $200,000 special appropriation for instructional computing facilities.

Ryder appealed for sufficient support to hire additional faculty to serve SVSC's larger student body. "The burden is too heavy for our faculty to carry over a long period of time," he said, noting that the faculty has made salary concessions, positions have been frozen and other austerity measures have been adopted to cope with inadequate appropriations.

The hearing was part of the legislative process to set state appropriations to higher education for the state's 1985 fiscal year.

COMMISSION REPORT IN LIBRARY

Copies of the midyear progress report of the Governor's Commission on the Future of Higher Education in Michigan are on file under "SVSC Reserve" in the library. While numerous summaries of the report have appeared in local, state and national press, the full text raises additional discussion items and places varying degrees of emphasis on points covered by the media. SVSC personnel are invited to review the document and share their responses with College administrators.

COMMITTEES TO BE FORMED FOR CAMPUS MASTER PLAN REVIEW

Committees will be named to study the placement of a proposed water retention pond, and to review the campus master plan recommendations for the northeast quadrant of college property. The group selected to study the proposal which would convert a cattail swamp north of College Drive East to a water retention pond will begin its activities in the fall. Members will include faculty from the biology, engineering and physical education departments as well as a representative from student government.

I.F. 2 construction and future development of campus facilities was discussed at an April 16 meeting. President Ryder used transparencies and maps to illustrate major features of the campus master plan approved in 1977. He outlined the development of the master plan, noting that students and College employees had input into the process. "However, few of those students are still at SVSC, and there have been many changes in staff since then," he said.

Ryder reviewed development on campus since the master plan was adopted, and projected plans for future expansion. He said the construction of The Pioneer Hall of Engineering and Technology was consistent with the plan. Noting that "we have been working toward I.F. 2 since 1970," he said changes have been made to the proposed complex, but they were developed in accordance with the master plan.

In response to student inquiries regarding input on future campus development, Ryder agreed to name a committee that would evaluate feasibility of proposed uses for the northeast quadrant of campus, including a study of wetland areas.

BRIEFLY SPEAKING - EVENTS & INFORMATION

--Funding opportunities for small businesses will be discussed at the Saginaw Valley Entrepreneurs Club dinner meeting on Wednesday, April 25, at 6:00 p.m. in lower Doan. Todd Anuskiewicz, research director of MERRA, will cover "Federal Research and Development Dollars for Small Business." MERRA is a state office working with the Michigan Department of Commerce to assist small research and development businesses in taking advantage of federal programs. For more information, call the SVSC Business and Industrial Development Institute at ext. 4048.

--An interfaith convocation will be conducted the morning of commencement, April 28, at 9:30 a.m. in the theatre. The program will feature inspirational readings and music. Guest speaker Dr. Oscar Remick, president of Alma College, will address the role of faith as a means of preserving achievements in education. All members of the campus community are encouraged to attend this celebration. For information, call Sr. Trish Novicke at ext. 4423.

--SVSC's nursing alumni are planning a reunion for Thursday, May 10, at 6:00 p.m. in lower level Doan. The event will mark the fifth anniversary of SVSC's first graduating class of nurses. A social hour begins at 6:00, buffet dinner at 7:00, with a short program following. Cost for the evening is $9.50. All faculty interested in attending should contact Debbie Bowman at ext. 4152.

--A Saginaw group is sponsoring a live lobster sale to raise money for a new scholarship for nurses. The Saginaw County Medical Society Auxiliary will be selling lobsters on Saturday, May 19, from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. in the Four Flags Racquet Club parking lot. Lobsters are $8 each for the one pound size, and $10 for pound and a half, with 50 percent of the cost tax deductible. Profits will be split between the medical auxiliary and the Lawyers' Wives of Saginaw County. Lobsters must be ordered by May 10. Forms are available in the School of Nursing and Allied Health Sciences office, and Information Services. For more information, call Alma Galsterer at 793-1513.

--The snackbar will have new hours for summer session service. Starting Monday, April 30, the snackbar will serve from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. For more information, call campus dining services at ext. 4253.

--Faculty and staff who will not be on campus this summer and wish to update their campus directory photo are asked to schedule an appointment before the end of winter semester. Those wishing a new portrait can call college photographer Dennis Ulrich at ext. 4086.

--The second annual Polish Festival will be held June 15-17, at Polaski Hall, 6525 Weiss in Saginaw Township. Profits from the festival will go to the SVSC Foundation and for the promotion of Polish studies at SVSC. The Polish Heritage Committee of Mid-Michigan, event sponsors, are asking the campus community to assist in the organization and operation of the festival. Volunteers are needed to man ticket booths, work in various tents, and perform other duties. Anyone interested in assisting the festival can call the Polish Institute at ext. 4315.

--Midland's Center for the Arts Theatre Guild will present The Little Foxes May 17-19 and 23-26 at 8:00 p.m. in the little theatre. The drama by Lillian Hellman examines the predatory ways of ruthless people who have risen from poverty to affluence, only to turn mercilessly upon one another. Tickets will be available beginning May 9 at the Center box office. Call 631-4800 for reservations and ticket information.

--Bay County's Volunteer Action Center is looking for someone to donate their time and talents as editor of the organization's newsletter. If anyone knows of a student or other person who would like hands-on writing and editing experience, have them call the center at 893-6060.

ACROSS CAMPUS

--Dr. Abbas Ali, assistant professor of management, recently attended the annual meeting of the Midwest Academy of Management at Notre Dame. He presented a paper titled "Comparative Study of the Value Systems Among Managers of Public vs. Private and Mixed Organizations."

--David Blackburn, Deckerville High School teacher, is the recipient of a National Endowment for the Humanities grant for summer study. He will attend a seminar titled
"Gide, Malraux, Sartre and Camus: Ethical Dimensions in Modern French Novels." Blackburn is currently enrolled in an SVSC advanced English composition class at the Cass City center.

--Drs. Jean Brown and Elaine Stephens, assistant professors of education, presented research findings at the National Council of Teachers of English Conference in Columbus, Ohio. Their paper was titled "Elementary Writing Instruction: A Model That Works." Brown and Stephens have also collaborated on two other articles this year. "Michigan English/Language Arts Teachers Take an Introspective Look" was published in the January/February edition of The Michigan English Teacher, and "Attitudes About Reading Instruction" will appear in an upcoming issue of News and Views on Reading.

--Gary Laatsch, adjunct art instructor, was awarded an honorable mention at the 25th Annual Area Art Show at Bay City Studio 23. He earned the honor for an etching titled "I Don't Have the Time So I Just Look."

--Dr. Harold Peterson, professor of education, served on a panel of periodic review at the January meeting of the Michigan Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. He also was appointed to chair a task force that will prepare a position paper on the periodic review of Michigan's teacher education programs.

--Ann Rae, associate professor of social work, Dr. Rosalie Troester, assistant professor of English, Dr. Anna Dadlez, associate professor of modern foreign languages, and M. Rene Johnson, adjunct English instructor, will present papers at the annual Michigan Women's Studies Association at University of Michigan - Flint on May 5. Rae will discuss "Devaluation of the Elderly Woman in Social Welfare Policy and Implications for Service Delivery." Troester's topic will be "Women Writers of the Harlem Renaissance," and Dadlez will present "The Female Image in Post World War II Polish Literature." Johnson's paper is a memoir describing the hassles of part-time teaching, titled "An Office of One's Own or: Crying Woolf."

--James Reid, an art major from Saginaw, earned second place honors at the 25th Annual Area Art Show at Bay City Studio 23. He was given the award for his sculpture titled "Foozie's House."

--Dr. Thomas Renna, professor of history, gave a lecture at Calvary Episcopal Church in Saginaw on April 15. His topic was "Easter in the Middle Ages: St. Francis & Gothic Architecture."

TOURNAMENT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

SVSC will be hosting the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics national golf tournament during the first full week of June, and volunteer support from the campus community is needed to make the event a success. Joe Vogl, SVSC assistant golf coach, is asking for volunteers who can help with tournament preparation June 2-8. Teams from throughout the United States will be playing at the Cardinals' home course, Vogl says, adding that a well-run tournament would give SVSC positive exposure. Those interested in assisting with tournament preparations should call Vogl at ext. 4085.

INTERIOR CHANGES PUBLICATION SCHEDULE

With the summer sessions close at hand, the "Interior" will be published every other Tuesday. The next "Interior" will be printed and distributed on May 8. The deadline for submissions to the "Interior" is noon on the Wednesday prior to publication. Please call information services at ext. 4054 if you have questions about publication dates or deadlines.
