December 4, 1984

HOLIDAY CLOSING SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

To conserve energy and reduce expenditures, all SVSC offices except the admissions office will be closed from 4:30 p.m. Friday, December 21 until 8:00 a.m. Wednesday, January 2, 1985 for holiday break. The official paid holidays will be December 24 and 25 for Christmas and December 31 and January 1 for New Year's.

Employees wishing to receive payment for December 26-28 must use either vacation or personal days. Employees who are members of a bargaining unit are covered by the provisions of their contract, and should contact either the personnel office or the executive committee of their unit with questions about arrangements. Those employees who do not have sufficient vacation or personal time may request an advance on leave.

To facilitate the December 28 payroll, time cards should be submitted by 10:00 a.m. Monday, December 17. This will require that hours be estimated for December 17-22. Paychecks for the 28th will be delivered December 21, but cannot be cashed prior to December 28.

From December 17 to January 7 the library will be open 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m. weekdays except during holiday break. Weekly shipments of approval plan books will continue to arrive during holiday break, and will be displayed for two weeks. Faculty may review all books by visiting the library December 10-14 and January 2-4, or December 17-21 and January 7-11.

Mail will not be sorted or delivered during holiday break. Dale Irish, director of business and auxiliary services, anticipates there will be some backlog when offices reopen on January 2. "Please be assured, however, that all outgoing mail will be processed and delivered to the post office as usual when offices reopen," he said.
Thirty-three students will be included in the 1985 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." They join an elite group of campus leaders chosen from more than 1,500 institutions of higher education in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and several foreign nations.

Selections were based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and future potential. All candidates were screened by a nominating committee composed of administrators, faculty and students at SVSC.

Named from SVSC this year are: Michael J. Beveridge, a senior in elementary education; Colleen A. Boomis, a senior in nursing; Denise M. Bristol, a senior in social work; Geraldine E. Broughman, a junior in history; Daniel M. Chadwick, a junior in English; Diane R. Chartier, a senior in English; Katherine L. Daly, a senior in Spanish; Jeffrey M. Florczak, a senior in physics; Colleen F. Foley, a junior in data processing; Karen L. Foulds, a senior in chemistry; and Timothy L. Friebel, a senior in chemistry.

Also named are: Sandra K. Greierbiehl, a junior in elementary education; Arletta R. Hansen, a senior in social work; Lisa K. Henry, a senior in mechanical engineering; Robin T. Jones, a junior in physical education; Bradley J. King, a junior in physical education; Joyce A. Koehler, a senior in social work; Lori M. McMasters, a junior in social work; Mark W. Moleski, a senior in English; Dallas W. Mossman, a senior in data processing; Susan Morse O'Connor, a senior in social work; Ellen K. Petre, a senior in social work; and Rosemary K. Pierson, a senior in social work.

Also included are: Phyllis T. Ranne, a senior in nursing; Terrell R. Schaeding, a senior in accounting; Gene A. Schroll, a senior in natural science; Patricia F. Stranay, a senior in social work; Susan R. Suing, a junior in art; Jean M. Tolfa, a junior in elementary education; John C. Tolfa, a senior in chemistry; Susan K. Weisenberger, a junior in management; Renee J. Witte, a junior in marketing; and Jeffrey W. Zertas, a junior in pre-engineering.

Dr. Mason Y.H. Wang, professor of English at SVSC, has been awarded a $500 grant by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH). The award, from NEH's Travel to Collections program, will fund travel to Washington, D.C. There Wang will visit the Library of Congress to research 1984 Chinese studies and translations of works by Shakespeare.

Wang serves as correspondent at large on the International Committee for "Shakespeare Quarterly's" World Shakespeare Bibliography. He served as contributing editor covering Chinese translations and studies in 1983, and his work will be published in the scholarly journal early in 1985.

Wang has taught at SVSC since 1969. He holds a Ph.D. and an M.A. from Indiana University, and a bachelor's degree from National Taiwan University.

GRANTS, APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Two SVSC administrators and one faculty member have been awarded funds or appointments by national educational grants organizations.

Dr. Eugene Hamilton, dean of continuing education and international programs, was awarded $200 for travel to the regional conference of the National Association of Foreign Student Affairs (NAFSA) held in Chicago. Topics covered at the NAFSA conference included methods for providing services for international students, types of services necessary for U.S. students studying abroad, and the development of links between U.S. and international universities.

Dr. William K. Barnett, dean of the school of arts and behavioral sciences, and Dr. Terry Ishihara, professor of mechanical engineering, have been named readers for the National Science Foundation's (NSF) College Science Instrumentation Program (CSIP). They will serve on a panel to review and evaluate grant proposals submitted for CSIP funding. CSIP provides matching funds for the purchase of science equipment needed to implement new or improved courses in undergraduate science education. The review panel will meet in Washington, D.C. for four days to complete the evaluation and recommendation process.
BRIEFLY SPEAKING

--Ted Nitz, personal counselor and coordinator of handicapped services, will present a "Test Anxiety Workshop" on Tuesday, December 4 at 4:00 p.m. in Chrysallis Center. Workshop participants will learn exercises and techniques that will help them be better prepared for final exams. Admission is free. For more information, call Campus Activities at ext. 4260 or Chrysallis Center at ext. 4267.

--A lecture and discussion by Fr. Bill Taylor, Roman Catholic diocese of Saginaw, will center on the origin and religious significance of Luke's Christmas story. The presentation will be Wednesday, December 5 from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in lower level Doan Center. Admission is free, and brown bag lunches and trays are welcome. For more information, call ext. 4423.

--The last language panel of the Fall semester will be presented Thursday, December 6 from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. in the Wickes Hall faculty lounge. Dr. James Mitchell, dean of the school of business and management, will speak on "A Business View of Right Writing." Dr. Phyllis Hastings, assistant professor of English, will present "Sentence Patterns: The Problems of Sophisticated Writers." Admission to the session is free. For more information contact Dr. Phyllis Hastings at ext. 4332.

--The Valley Film Society will present "Get Out Your Handkerchiefs," a 1978 Oscar-winning love story about two men who simply do not understand women, but will do anything to keep one woman happy. The film will be shown Friday, December 7 at 7:45 p.m. in Wickes lecture hall. Admission is by pro-rated membership, available at the door. For further information call ext. 4303.

--Reservations for the Annual Holiday Luncheon are being accepted until Friday, December 7. The luncheon will take place at the Sky Room, Tri-City Airport, on Friday, December 14 at noon. The buffet includes an elaborate salad bar, three entrees, and baked potatoes. The price is $7 ($5.95 plus tax and tip); checks should be made payable to SVSC. Your parking pass will be validated at the restaurant. For information call ext. 4045.

--The Valley Film Society will screen "Eyewitness" on Friday, December 21. The film is a murder mystery that stars William Hurt as a simple, likeable night janitor absolutely in love with a TV reporter played by Sigourney Weaver. When Hurt chances upon a businessman murdered in his building, he nurtures Weaver's curiosity in both the case and himself by offering exclusive "eyewitness" information he hasn't told police. All Valley Film Society selections are shown at 7:45 p.m. in the Wickes Hall lecture theatre. Admission is available at the door on a pro-rated basis. For information call ext. 4303.

--Persons interested in the Tour of Spain can still make reservations. Travelers will spend nine days in six of Spain's best-known cities between March 2 and 10, 1985. Cost of the tour is approximately $989, including round trip airfare, continental breakfast and lunch or dinner each day, transportation in Spain, tour guides, and service charges. For information on the tour contact Dr. Ricardo Pastor at ext. 4486.

--1984 Internal Revenue Service forms are available at the circulation desk of the library, including: Form 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, Schedules A & B (Form 1040), Schedule G (Form 1040), and Schedule W (Form 1040). More specialized forms can be copied from a set of reproducible tax forms. For information call ext. 4236.

--The Bay Arts Council is sponsoring the Interlochen Arts Academy Studio Orchestra in Bay City on Sunday, January 27 at 3:30 p.m. in the Westminster Presbyterian Church. For reservation and ticket information, contact Donna Shugart by phoning (616) 276-9221, ext. 240.

ACROSS CAMPUS

--Margaret M. Flatt, assistant professor of nursing, and Patricia L. Pelletier, instructor of nursing, acted as delegates to the Michigan Nurses Association Convention, October 30 through November 2. They were elected representatives of their respective local districts of Midland and Saginaw. This is the second year that Mrs. Flatt has served in this capacity. She recently has been appointed to serve on the state organization's Resolutions Committee.
Marshall Lupp, instructor of photography, held a one-person exhibit at Central Michigan University South Arts Studio from November 26 - 30. Lupp also exhibited three silver prints in the Mid-Michigan Show at the Midland Center for the Arts. Gary Laatsch, professor of sculpture, also exhibited his work in the Mid-Michigan Show. His work won an honorable mention in the Saginaw All Area Show at the Saginaw Art Museum.

Drs. Don J. Bachand and Charles B. Fields attended a conference by the American Society of Criminology on November 7 - 10 in Cincinnati, Ohio. Fields, assistant professor of criminal justice, presented a paper titled: "Preliminary Findings from Evaluation of the Texas Intensive Supervisory Program." Bachand, associate professor of criminal justice, presented a paper titled: "Increased Criminal Behavior by Elderly: Concerns for the Justice System."

Mr. Calvin Williams, head reference librarian, has been elected to a four-year term on the Bridgeport Township Library Board. Williams came to SVSC in September, 1975. He holds an M.S.L.S. from Atlanta University, and his B.A. from Morris Brown University. He has served as branch librarian at the Saginaw Public Library System, and head librarian at Morris Brown College Library.

PERSONNEL

SENIOR RECORDS CLERK: Office of the Registrar; Full-time, permanent (replacement). Level 5, $5.88 per hour.

TEACHER'S AIDE: Children's Center; Temporary position; 30 hours per week from 1/7/85 to 4/26/85. $3.50 per hour.

All applications must be received by the Personnel Office by Tuesday, December 4. SVSC is an equal opportunity employer, and is non-discriminatory in its policies and procedures.

HIGH FIVE

The SVSC men's basketball team defeated St. Mary's College by an 89-65 score on Friday, then went on to a lopsided 95-52 victory over Albion College on Saturday to win the Cardinal Tip-Off Tournament. That brings their early-season record to 5-0. The Cards are averaging just under 59 percent in field goal attempts, and are averaging more than 85 points per game.

Mark Oates was named Most Valuable Player of the tournament, and teammates Dan Farley and James Preston were named to the All-tournament team. The Cards will play at Alma College on Wednesday and host Siena Heights on Saturday.

Meanwhile, the Lady Cardinals' basketball team was equally impressive in their season opener against Spring Arbor College. The SVSC women demonstrated the kind of power that took them to the nationals last season with a 93-58 victory in the non-conference contest. Four of the Lady Cards hit double figures, including junior Sue Meko, a transfer from Fort Hays State in Kansas. Meko came off the bench to score 20 points. Teammates Gail Goestenkors, Sonja Paquin and Sophia Yarger chipped in with 19, 14 and 10 respectively.

The women play Alma College tonight, Aquinas College on Thursday, and Bowling Green on Saturday.

EVENTWATCH

Dec. 4 ... Overseas Programs, 2-5 p.m.
Dec. 5 ... The Christmas Story
Dec. 6 ... Language Panel Series
Dec. 7 ... "Get Out Your Handkerchiefs"
Dec. 8 ... M. BB: SVSC vs Siena Heights