Entertainment, Education & More!

WINTER 1984
CALENDAR OF EVENTS
There's a lot more happening at SVSC than just classes and studying. We offer a wide range of entertainment — be it the arts or thought-provoking speakers and programs. There are plays, concerts, films, sports and events for high school students. SVSC's low admission fares of $1 to $3 provide some of the best entertainment bargains in the Saginaw Valley and many of the events are free. Come join us and see how much fun the arts and education can be!

ON STAGE

January 24-25
8:00 p.m.
Lower Doan

"Uncommon Women And Others"
A drama that follows several women who reunite six years after college graduation. Through the use of flashbacks and comparisons the play examines how their lives have failed or succeeded. This touching work is produced and directed by senior theatre major Kim Schultheiss. Admission is free.

January 24-25

Auditions for "The Effect Of Gamma Rays On Man In The Moon Marigolds"
The five female roles for this SVSC theatre production are open to community performers as well as SVSC students, faculty and staff. Backstage and crew workers are also welcome. For information on audition times, call Dr. Janet Rubin at 790-4019.

March 23-25
8:00 p.m., 23rd
8:00 p.m., 24th
2:00 p.m., 25th

"The Effect Of Gamma Rays On Man In The Moon Marigolds"
An SVSC production of the Paul Zindel hit. A young girl, tormented by a disturbed mother and sister, finds solace and a way to rise above her environment through a science project and caring teacher. Tickets are $3 general admission, $1 for students and senior citizens.

For reservations or ticket information about "Marigolds," phone 790-4110.
A MUSICAL NOTE

January 22
3:00 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

Valley Woodwind Quintet
Three accomplished musicians from SVSC’s faculty will be joined by two community members for an afternoon of chamber and ensemble music. This talented group will offer a rich blending of bassoon, clarinet, oboe, flute and French horn. Admission is free.

January 23
7:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

SVSC Jazz Artist Series
Trumpeter, composer and arranger Walter Szymanski of Detroit joins the SVSC Jazz Ensemble to showcase his talents as a performer and song writer.

February 18
6:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

Gospel Concert
SVSC’s Theatre will swell with the sounds of sacred music when choirs from Detroit, Flint and the Tri-Cities perform. The concert is part of the college’s Black History Month program and admission is free.

February 20
7:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

SVSC Jazz Artist Series
Featured artist will be Earl Perry of Flushing. A talented piano player, Perry will treat the audience to his exciting be-bop style.

February 23
7:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

Chamber Winds Concert
Brass ensembles, a clarinet choir, and other groups will mix baroque, classical, romantic and modern works to demonstrate that size has no bearing on rich melodies and fine music.

April 9
7:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

SVSC Jazz Artist Series And Choral Concert
It’s a big night for jazz lovers. Headlining the concert are nationally renowned saxophonists Eddie Harris and Wendell Harrison. The SVSC Choir and Jazz Ensemble will team up to warm up the house for the main act.

April 12
7:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

Chamber Winds Concert
Mix the rich sounds of brass and reed instruments in ensembles, trios and duets and you have the makings of an intimate musical evening.

April 17
7:30 p.m.
SVSC Theatre

Collegium And Chamber Choir Concert
The haunting sounds of such ancient instruments as the krummhorn, lute and harp add a special touch to voices singing works from the Medieval and Renaissance periods.

Tickets for SVSC music programs are $2 general admission, $1.50 for students and senior citizens. Call the SVSC fine arts office at 790-4159 for reservations or ticket information.
Mr. Fingers
An unusual name, but fitting. Mr. Fingers is a magician, escape artist and mentalist who combines his talents with a splash of vaudeville. Pulse control, predictions, telepathy and sleight of hand are all part of his act as one of the most asked for entertainers in the "variety" field of college performers. Admission is free.

SVSC Beach Party
This annual event is just the tonic to get you through the rest of winter. Picnic food, palm trees, sand and beach games are all part of the fun. Free admission. For more information, call the campus activities office at 790-4260.

Tish Hinojosa
An accomplished vocalist, Hinojosa's repertoire ranges from American pop to Spanish classics. She is also an award winning folk songwriter. The program is free of charge.

"Not Just Mime"
Two talented artists combine movement of modern dance, and the expressiveness of mime into a performance of somber grace and athletic comedy. Admission is $2 for adults and $1 for senior citizens and students.

Parker Macdonell
Macdonell is a performer whose music shows such influences as Dan Fogelberg and James Taylor. This singer, songwriter and guitarist explores the personal side of life in his songs. He has appeared in concert with Mary Travers of Peter, Paul and Mary and as a backup musician for Chuck Berry and Bo Diddley. Admission is free.
The Valley Film Society presents classic American and foreign films in Wickes lecture theatre the first and third Friday of each month. Prorated memberships are available for the remaining movies on the 1983-84 schedule. For information about the Society or a listing of titles, call 790-4303 or 799-6203.
