Performing Arts Series Premieres September 9

Extracurricular activities on the SVSU campus will be enlivened this year with the addition of a new series of performing arts presentations.

The series leads off with singer Josh White Jr., a versatile and popular artist who will perform a variety of styles from ballads to country, contemporary to jazz at 8:00 p.m., Wednesday, Sep. 9 in the University Theatre. White, who has performed in Carnegie Hall, New York’s Lincoln Center and Madison Square Garden, is the recipient of the Harry Chapin Award for contributions to humanity.

Other series performances scheduled for 8:00 p.m. start times in the University Theatre include:

Aerial Dance Company, a dance troupe offering energy in dance and strong creative choices in costume and music on Wednesday, Oct. 7, 1992.

Detroit Brass Company, Michigan’s best known brass quintet offering music ranging from 15th Century chamber music to ragtime and Americana on Wednesday, Jan. 13, 1993.

The Trip, by Crystal Rhodes and The Operation, by Von Washington, two short plays produced by Western Michigan University’s Theatre Department. Presented on Wednesday, Feb. 17, as part of SVSU’s celebration of Black History Month, The Trip is a comic adventure involving the feelings of four black women as they travel across country together; and The Operation deals with Willie’s thoughts about life in a society where he has no home, no job and no prospects.

Season tickets for the Performing Arts Series may be purchased before September 9 from the Office of Student Life. They are $6 for SVSU students and guests and $12 for general admission. Advance single performance tickets are available at $2 for SVSU students and guests and $4 general admission. Tickets also may be purchased at the door for $3 for SVSU students and $5 general.

The series is sponsored by the Alliance for the Performing Arts, a student volunteer group; the Office of Student Life; the Office of the Dean of Arts and Behavioral Sciences, the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs; the Office of the President and the Office of the Vice President for Academic Affairs.

For more information, call the Student Life office at ext. 4170.

Student Registration Breaks Record at SVSU

A record number of students are registering for fall classes at SVSU. At the close of Thursday registration hours, some 6,896 students students already had enrolled, surpassing last year’s registration of 6,474. Late registration continued through Friday, Sept. 4.

The Thursday total included a record number of minority students. Nearly 700 African-American, Hispanic, Native American and Asian Pacific students signed up for fall classes, topping last year’s all-time high of 661 minority students.

Through Thursday, students had registered for 67,240 credits, also a record. A series of welcoming receptions and activities greeted students during the opening week.
SVSU Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month

The Student Life and Evening Services Offices are co-sponsoring Fiesta Hispanica, a celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month.

Participants will gather around the Gazelle Fountain area from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 22. Cost of $3 per person includes barbecued chicken, rice, tortillas, beans, corn-on-the-cob, chips, salsa and more. Mariachi Zapopan will be the featured entertainment. The event will be moved inside Doan Mall in case of cool or wet weather. For more information, call ext. 4170 or 4092.

State Supreme Court Justice to Visit SVSU

Michigan Supreme Court Justice Conrad L. Mallett Jr. will be on campus Tuesday, Sept. 22, 1992 for a noon speaking engagement and reception in SVSU’s Alumni Lounge.

Justice Mallett will address how the Bill of Rights is reflected in recent Supreme Court decisions. His visit to SVSU is co-sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Programs and The River Valley Regional Humanities Council.

Prior to his 1990 appointment to the state’s highest court, Justice Mallett was a partner in one of the City of Detroit’s leading law firms, Jaffe, Raitt & Heuer, P.C. He attended Wayne State University before completing his undergraduate degree at UCLA. He is a graduate of the University of Southern California Law School and also holds a master’s degree from that institution. Refreshments will be served at the reception that follows the program. For further information, call ext. 4397.

Student Government, President’s Office Host Annual Fall Picnic

The campus community is invited to attend the Annual Fall Picnic, Wednesday, Sept. 9. The event will take place from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 4:30 to 7 p.m. in the Gazelle Fountain Area. It will move under Brown Concourse in case of rain. For more information contact Mike Hart, ext. 4232.

Annual Cards Party Returns to SVSU Sept. 15

The Student Life Office will present the third annual Cards Party, Tuesday, Sept. 15. Included will be club displays, games, prizes, concessions, caricature portraits, club trivia contests, and other fun activities. The event takes place in the Gazelle Fountain Area from 3 to 7 p.m. In case of rain, the Cards Party will be rescheduled for Sept. 16. Look for the event to move to Ryder Center’s O’Neill Arena if the weather also is wet on Sept. 16.

Benefit Auction for Women’s Cross Country Team Occurs Sept. 15

Melvin Adelman, an SVSU adjunct instructor and Distinguished Service Medallion recipient, is a co-chair for a Goods and Services Auction to benefit the Women’s Cross Country team at SVSU. The auction will take place at the Bay City Country Club on Tuesday, Sept. 15.

Hors d’oeuvres will be served at 6 p.m., followed by the live auction at 7 p.m. Tickets are $15 per person. Door prizes will be awarded.

For further information, contact the Office of Corporate Relations at ext. 4291.

The SVSU Department of Communication & Theatre Presents

HARVEY

AUDITIONS

At the SVSU Theatre
Tuesday, Sept. 15, 7 p.m.
Thursday, Sept. 17, 4 p.m.
Performance Dates: Nov. 13-15
12 Roles Available (6 men, 6 women)

For more information, call ext. 4019
Support the Corporate Challenge Team

A team of 30 SVSU faculty and staff members will test their competitive natures in the Saginaw YMCA 1992 Community Corporate Challenge, Sept. 15-19.

The mission of the Community Corporate Challenge is to provide a program to unite Mid-Michigan businesses and their employees in the pursuit of good health, personal fitness and company spirit.

Participants of varying interests and abilities have volunteered for the challenge.

A total of 14 events are included in the challenge. Among them are a tug-of-war, basketball shoot, 5K run and walk, swim relay, innertube relay, obstacle course, volleyball tournament, bike race and team cheer.

Major sponsors for the 1992 challenge are Blue Care Network of East Michigan, First of America Bank and Pioneer Sugar. SVSU's team is sponsored by the Public Affairs Division.

The team would benefit from the support of their SVSU colleagues. For further information on attending the Community Corporate Challenge as a spectator, call Jo Peterson in the BIDI Office at ext. 4310.

Events/Activities

- University Art Gallery Exhibition — Begins Thursday, Sept. 10 through Oct. 6. On display are "The Popular Arts of Latin America," folk art images of pre-Hispanic America. For Gallery hours, call ext. 4159.

- Community Services Day — Thursday, Sept. 10, 10 a.m.-2 p.m., Brown Concourse. Volunteer with one of the community agencies represented.

- Comedy Night with Billy Martin — Monday, Sept. 14, 10 p.m., Lower Level Doan Center. Admission is free of charge.

- Saginaw Valley Entrepreneurs Club — Wednesday, Sept. 16, 6 p.m., Lower Level Doan Center. Dan Andrews, nationally recognized author and speaker on customer services, management training and employee development, will present "How to Create a Customer-Driven Organization." Registration is $12 in advance or $15 at the door. Call ext. 4048 for reservation details.

- Valley Film Society — Friday, Sept. 18, 7:45 p.m., SVSU Theatre. Featured film will be Babette's Feast, a heart-warming Academy Award winner for Best Foreign Film. Admission is by pro-rated membership. Call ext. 4015 for further information.

Did You Know? ...

- Cardinal Sins is accepting submissions for the fall 1992 issue. Drop off works of art by Friday, Oct. 16, 4 p.m. in Zahnow 202. For more information call 631-2445.

- The Office of Student Life is sponsoring a Leadership Education and Development Series (L.E.A.D.) during the 1992-93 academic year. Students, faculty and staff who are interested may request a brochure on the program by calling ext. 4170.

- Distinction in Leadership Awards, to be presented at the April 1993 recognition dinner, have an application deadline of Wednesday, Sept. 9. For further details, call the Office of Student Life at ext 4170.

- Faculty and staff members may pick up their Cardinal Athletic Card from the Athletic Department, second floor Ryder Center. This card grants free admission to all regularly scheduled home football and basketball games. Additional cards for spouses and family members are $20.

- The Valley Vanguard is offering classified ads free of charge to students, faculty, staff, student organizations and campus offices. In addition, SVSU's student newspaper offers a 25 percent discount off regular display rates for these same groups. The Vanguard is published every other week during fall and winter semesters. For advertising information, call ext. 4248.

- SVSU I.D. Card stickers for 1992-93 are available in the Cashier's Office for returning faculty and staff. New faculty and staff should contact Alice Cornejo, ext. 5669, for a card and sticker. Cards for new students are in the process of being mailed.
Professional Profile

- Drs. Jan Blecke, Margaret M. Flatt and Sally Decker, nursing faculty, traveled to Madison (WI) in June with one of their M.S.N. program students to speak at a conference on "Transforming RN Education: Dialogue and Debate." Speakers came from 35 states and five countries. The two presentations given by Blecke and Flatt were titled "RN's Need to Tell Their Stories" and "Flexibility: Key to Successful RN to B.S.N. Program Planning." Decker's and Jan Bryant's presentation, which included an audio-visual component, was titled "Creation of Visual Metaphors in RN Education." The revised texts of the presentations on stories and visual metaphors were selected as chapters in an upcoming refereed NLN publication with the same title as the conference.

- Dr. Judith Kerman, dean of the College of Arts and Behavioral Sciences, had an article published in the fall 1992 issue of Journal of American Culture (Vol. 15, No. 3). The article was titled "The Clown as Social Healer: A Study of the Clown Ministry Movement."

- Dr. Albert Menard, associate professor of physics, presented an invited 30-minute paper at the national meeting of the American Association of Physics Teachers (AAPT) in Orono (ME). The paper was titled "A View from the Bridge Between Europe and Asia: Teaching in Turkey 1991-92." During the same meeting, Menard was appointed to a three-year term on the Committee on International Education, one of the standing committees of the AAPT.

- Dr. Suk Koo (Tom) Yun, professor of physics, attended the 4th International Conference on Korean Studies in Beijing, August 20-22, hosted by the Peking University and the Osaka University of Economics and Law. Yun presented two papers: "The Pioneers of Physics in Korea and Korean Physicists in America" and "The E & Theory of Multigenerational Unification of Strong and Electroweak Interactions." Yun was one of the session chairmen for the Science and Technology Parallel Sessions.

In attendance at this conference were more than 620 scholars from all over the world, including North Korea (29), South Korea (140), China, Japan, the Commonwealth of Independent States, Europe and the United States. The conference encompassed all academic fields, including language and literature, history, philosophy, political science, economics, education, medicine, science and technology, etc.

Opening ceremonies were held at Peking University, with the welcoming address delivered by the vice president of the University. A banquet was held at the Peoples Great Hall in Tiananmen Square, where normally a State dinner for a visiting Head of State is given. Conference headquarters were located at the Intercontinental Hotel, and the Parallel Sessions took place at the adjacent International Conference Hall.

At the end of the conference, Yun was elected to serve a two-year term as vice president of the International Society for Korean Studies (ISKS), a global organization.

On the way to Beijing, Yun also gave an invited talk on his "E & Theory" at the Center for Theoretical Physics, Seoul National University, Seoul, Korea.

Personnel

The following positions are open to all regular employees of the University:

- General Accounting Clerk, Controller's Office — Full-time (replacement) position to provide basic accounting clerk support. Grade level 2, rate of pay: $7.34 per hour.

- Admissions Clerk — Full-time (replacement) position to greet and direct visitors to the department, provide admission information as requested by phone and in person. Grade level 2, rate of pay: $7.34 per hour.

For further information, call the Personnel Office at ext. 4112. SVSU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer.

High Five

The Cardinal football team lost their home opener last Saturday to the Hillsdale College Chargers, 21-0. SVSU's next home game will be a Sept. 26 Homecoming contest against St. Joseph's College (IN) at noon.
Saginaw Valley State University
INFORMATION FOR "PROFESSIONAL PROFILE"

(name)  (title & department)

(office and/or department telephone) is the author of

(name of journal or publisher)

(date of publication)

presented a paper titled conducted a workshop titled exhibited/performed

other (specify)

at a meeting of

(name of group or conference)

in

(location)

(date of presentation)

was appointed/elected

(name of group)

Other Information

Please complete and return to Information Services, 276 Wickes Hall.
Form may be photocopied, or items may be submitted in other legible formats.