FELLOWSHIP PROGRAMS/Hagley Museum and Library
Provides fellowships to utilize Hagley's collections in American economic, business, industrial, and technological history. Grants-in-aid support visits to Hagley for scholarly research in the imprint, manuscript, pictorial, and artifact collection for a max of $1,600 per month over two months. du Pont Fellowships support access to and use of Hagley's research collections for up to 6 months. Dissertation Fellowships are also available for $6,000 and includes free housing and office space. See http://www.hagley.org/ for details.

Application Deadline: October 29, 2010

Education • Human and Community Development

SPECIAL EDUCATION-NATIONAL ACTIVITIES-TECHNOLOGY AND MEDIA SERVICES/U.S. Department of Education
The purpose of this program is to: (1) improve results for children with disabilities by promoting the development, demonstration, and use of technology; (2) support educational media services activities designed to be of value in the classroom setting to children with disabilities; and (3) provide support for captioning and video description that is appropriate for use in the classroom setting. See http://www2.ed.gov/programs/oseptms/index.html for details.

Application Deadline: October 12, 2010

Health • Mental Health

RESEARCH GRANTS/Gerber Foundation
Supports specific nutrition-related interventions to improve infant health and development from first year before birth to age three. Projects should have a specific nutrition focus with defined outcome parameters. Preference given to projects with national or regional impact that are sufficiently focused to make a difference in field of interest. Awards range from $50,000 - $1 million. Deadlines refer to required conceptual papers; full proposals due 2/15 and 8/15 by invitation only. See http://www.gerberfoundation.org/ for details.

Application Deadline: December 01, 2010

RESEARCH GRANTS/American Foundation for Suicide Prevention
Supports research on suicide and suicide prevention from a variety of disciplines: psychiatry, medicine, psychology, genetics, epidemiology, neurobiology, and others. Grants are awarded for one to two years under five programs: Young Investigator Grants ($85K); Standard Research Grants ($75K) & Linked Standard Research Grants ($225K); Distinguished Investigator Grants ($100K); Postdoctoral Research Fellowships ($100K); and Pilot Grants ($30K). See http://tinyurl.com/yebgzv8 for details.

Application Deadline: December 01, 2010

INDIVIDUAL PREDOCTORAL FELLOWS IN NURSING RESEARCH/National Institutes of Health
Supports applications (F31) that propose to increase the number of nurses prepared with a doctoral degree. NINR is particularly interested in facilitating the progress of students who are in research training programs for recent nursing graduates and students in BSN to PhD programs. This fellowship program will provide predoctoral training support for doctoral students. The applicant should propose a research training program and dissertation research that is consistent with the scientific mission of the NINR. Expires 5/8/13. See http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PAR-10-211.html for details.

Application Deadline: December 08, 2010
DISCOVERY RESEARCH K-12 (DR-K12)/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
 Enables significant advances in pre-K-12 student and teacher learning of the STEM disciplines through the development, implementation, and study of resources, models, and technologies for use by students, teachers, and policymakers. Funded activities begin with a research question about effective pre-K-12 STEM learning and teaching, and then develop, adapt, or study innovative resources, models, or technologies. Deadline refers to required letters of intent. Full proposals due 1/6/11. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=500047.
 Application Deadline: November 05, 2010

HYDROLOGIC SCIENCES/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
 Supports research on the flow of water and transport processes within streams, soils, and aquifers. Particular attention is given to spatial and temporal heterogeneity of fluxes and storages of water and chemicals over a wide range of scales; to geology and geomorphology; to interfaces with the landscape, microbial communities, and coastal areas. Studies may also deal with processes in aqueous geochemistry and with the physical, chemical, and biological processes within water bodies. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=13684 for details.
 Application Deadline: December 05, 2010

COMPUTATIONAL MATHEMATICS/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
 Supports mathematical research in areas of science where computing plays a central and essential role, emphasizing algorithms, numerical methods, and symbolic methods. Proposals ranging from single-investigator projects that develop and analyze innovative computational methods, to interdisciplinary team projects that not only create new mathematical and computational techniques but also use them to model, study, and solve important application problems are encouraged. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5390 for details.
 Application Deadline: December 15, 2010

GEOPHYSICS/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION
 Supports basic research in the physics of solid earth to explore its composition, structure, and processes. Lab, field, theoretical, and computational studies are supported. Topics include seismicity, seismic wave propagation, and earthquakes; Earth's magnetic, gravitational, and electrical fields; Earth's thermal structure; and geodynamics. Supports studies of active deformation, including geodesy, and studies of the properties and behavior of Earth materials. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=13682 for details.

SVSU FACULTY RESEARCH GRANT
 Application Deadline: November 15, 2010 online only
 SVSU Faculty Research, leading to publication or presentation, is funded at estimated 25 projects yearly; average release time is 3-4 hr/year; average award is $5,000. These grants are considered to be SEED MONEY designed to support research and stimulate the submission of proposals to the agencies for external funding. Any faculty member who has received research support in the last three out of five years will not receive additional award unless a research grant proposal is submitted to at least one outside agency (i.e., the National Science Foundation, National Endowment for the Humanities, Ford Foundation, and others).

SVSU PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT GRANT
 Application Deadline: November 15, 2010 online only
 Professional Development encourages scholarly activities such as pursuit of advanced course work or a degree in the faculty member’s own or new disciplines; retraining to develop a new specialty, such as computer programming; to learn a new skill, such as oral history techniques; or to develop a new pedagogical skill, such as competency-based instruction.

ANIMAL ART FOR THE PEOPLE: THE NEW DEAL AND AMERICAN ZOOS/ FY 07
 Jesse Donahue, Professor of Political Science and Honors Program Chair, received $37,500 in funding from the Saginaw Community Foundation: Ruth and Ted Braun Fellowship Program. This project, implemented from January 1, 2007 to December 31, 2009, was to co-author a book with Erik Trump, about the politics and history of zoos in the 1930s and the impact the federal government had on these institutions, also examining the culture of zoos during this period. During the first year of the grant, Professor Donahue examined archival sites in New Orleans, Washington D.C., and Baltimore. A rough draft of chapters, introduction, and works cited section for the book was created, completing about half of the book. A first draft of the manuscript was produced and reviewed by an expert in the field during the second year of the grant. Professor Donahue also presented a chapter from the book in April 2008 at a conference in New York and presented another research paper in April 2009 in New Orleans, discussing the relationship between circuses and zoos. During the third year of the grant, a final draft was completed by professors Donahue and Trump and they were offered a book contract by the MacFarland Press, exceeding the proposed outcomes of the grant.

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE AND ACCESS TO JUSTICE/ FY 07
 Holly Child, Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice, and Clifford Dorne, Associate Vice President for Program Development & Graduate Recruitment, secured $2,600 in funding from the Michigan State Bar Foundation to perform evaluation work for her Administration of Justice and Access to Justice project. Funds supported Michael Rossler, a student research assistant who assisted in constructing surveys, consent forms, attended meetings to track progress, attended training, and created databases for data entry and analysis. They evaluated the pilot project in Saginaw County to establish Family Group Conferencing (FGC), an alternative conflict resolution service in delinquency cases in the Family Division of the 10th Circuit Court. The process focuses on the family, creating an appropriate action in response to the offense, without bringing the juvenile into the court system. The facilitators were the trained staff of the Community Resolution Center of Genesee County. Training and project evaluation was conducted by SVSU. The needs addressed from the project were to reduce delays in legal proceedings involving juveniles, reduction of juvenile docket and attorney caseloads, victims making amends with juvenile offenses, and identification of appropriate sanctions and services for juveniles.
