AMERICA’S HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS:
PLANNING GRANTS/
NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR
THE HUMANITIES

Program allows institutions to provide the public with opportunities to explore the humanities through activities such as exhibitions, reading and film discussion series, catalogs, lectures, symposia, and websites. Projects with broad outreach and digital components are strongly encouraged. Grants generally are for up to $40,000, especially complex projects may receive up to $75,000. See http://www.neh.gov/grants/grantsbydivision.html#public for details.
Application Deadline: January 2011

AMERICA’S HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL ORGANIZATIONS:
IMPLEMENTATION GRANTS/
THE HUMANITIES

Supports traveling or long-term museum exhibitions, library-based projects, interpretation of historic places or areas, interpretive web sites, or other project formats that creatively engage audiences in exploring humanities ideas and questions. Applicants should have already done most of the planning for their projects, including the identification of the key humanities themes, relevant scholarship, and program formats. Projects with interdisciplinary perspectives and those that use innovative formats and non-traditional ways of engaging audiences are eligible. See http://www.neh.gov/grants/grantsbydivision.html#public for details.
Application Deadline: January 2011

ARTSLINK EXCHANGE PROGRAMS/
CEC ARTSLINK

Supports exchanges between artists and arts organizations in the U.S. and Central/Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia through four programs: ArtsLink Residencies (12/1) place artists at U.S. arts organizations for five weeks; Independent Projects (12/1) support artists/arts managers who have been invited to carry out a project at a U.S. nonprofit organization; ArtsLink Projects (1/15) support U.S. arts professionals to carry out projects; and ArtsLink Residencies Hosts (6/1) provides funding to host artists. See http://www.cecartslink.org for details.
Application Deadline: January 15, 2011

POLITICAL SCIENCE/
NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Supports scientific research that advances knowledge and understanding of citizenship, government, and politics. Proposals are expected to be theoretically motivated, conceptually precise, methodologically rigorous, and empirically oriented. Substantive areas of interest include American government and politics, comparative government and politics, international relations, political behavior, political economy, and political institutions. Target dates refer to research proposals. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=541 for details.

UNIQUE INTERACTIONS BETWEEN TOBACCO USE AND HIV/AIDS/
NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH

NIDA and the Fogarty International Center support research (R01; R03) related to the unique, interactive health effects of cigarette smoking and HIV/AIDS. Tobacco use and HIV/AIDS have an enormous public health impact; however, there is a dearth of understanding of the interactions between these issues at all levels, from basic neuroscience to behavioral and social epidemiology. Also, support given to applications associated with current grants under FIC’s AIDS International Training and Research Program. PA expires 1/8/12. See http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-08-253.html for R01 details.
Application Deadline: January 07, 2011

NATIONWIDE RESEARCH, DEVELOPMENT, AND TRAINING AWARDS/
AMERICAN DIABETES ASSOCIATION

Supports new investigators, established investigators, and investigators new to the field of diabetes research. There are three General Research Awards, three Development Awards and six Training Awards. See http://tinyurl.com/6yajur for details.
Application Deadline: January 15, 2011

EXECUTIVE NURSE FELLOWS PROGRAM/
ROBERT WOOD JOHNSON FOUNDATION

Program is an advanced leadership program for nurses in senior executive roles in health services, public health and nursing education who aspire to help lead and shape the United States health care system. Selects 20 fellows with awards up to $35,000 over 3 yrs. Funds support self-directed learning activities, independent study, and access to an electronic communications network. Applicants must apply online. See http://www.executivenursefellows.org./pdfarchives/PAR-253.html for R01 details.

TRANSFORMING UNDERGRADUATE EDUCATION IN STEM (TUES)/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Supports projects to improve the quality of STEM education for all undergraduate students. Especially encourages projects that have potential to bring about widespread adoption of classroom practices that embody understanding of how students learn most effectively. Transferability and dissemination are critical. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5741 for details.

Application Deadline: January 14, 2011

GEOGRAHY AND SPATIAL SCIENCES (GSS)/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Application Deadline: January 15, 2011

METHODOLOGY, MEASUREMENT, AND STATISTICS (MMS)/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Supports development of innovative methods and models for the social and behavioral sciences and interacts with the Statistics and Probability Program in MPS. MMS seeks proposals that are interdisciplinary, methodologically innovative, and grounded in theory. Interests are general research and infrastructure activities; mid-career research fellowships; research on survey and statistical methodology; and doctoral dissertation research. See http://www.nsf.gov/funding/pgm_summ.jsp?pims_id=5421 for details.

Application Deadline: January 16, 2011

PLANT GENOME RESEARCH PROGRAM/ NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

Supports four activities: Genome-Enabled Plant Research tackles major unanswered questions in plant biology on a genome-wide scale; Transferring Research from Model Systems applies basic biological findings made using model systems to studying basic biology of plants of economic importance; Tools and Resources for Plant Genome Research; and Improving Plant Genome Annotation improves existing tools or develops new tools for improved annotation of the genomes of plants of economic importance. DISSEMINATION NOTICE

PREPARING TEACHERS FOR THE MICHIGAN MERIT SOCIAL STUDIES CURRICULUM PROGRAM/ FY 07

Rodney Williams, Assistant Professor of Teacher Education, received $200,415 from the Michigan Department of Education: Title II, Part A(3) for the Preparing Teachers for the Michigan Merit Social Studies Curriculum program. The goal of the program was to address the need of the lack of exposure and familiarization with Social Studies by schoolteachers. The intended outcomes of this program were: 1) to provide social studies teachers with new content and with inquiry-based pedagogical strategies, 2) to better align course content delivered by liberal arts professors with state content standards and design new strategies for implementing course content in their schools, 3) to establish and nurture ongoing learning communities, 4) to integrate content, pedagogy and technology in ways that will better prepare and motivate teachers to improve their teaching and students’ in-depth learning and performance on high stakes achievement tests over the long term, 5) to increase teachers’ content knowledge, content pedagogical knowledge, including the areas of content area literacy and technology integration, 6) to establish a social studies resource center at SVSU to complement the existing Economics Education Center, and 8) to establish a masters program in teaching social studies at SVSU. A ten day institute was offered to regional middle and high school social studies teachers in the summers of both 2008 and 2009. The institutes addressed studying content and pedagogical and learning how to integrate civics and economics into inquiry-oriented units and lessons. A total of 25 Middle and High School teachers from 16 schools in 13 different school districts across Michigan participated in the program, reaching approximately 1,800 students. A teacher commented that “The interaction with the professors...every single one was not only stimulating but entertaining and accessible. All of that was appealing. Again, sometimes as classroom teachers you don’t get that type of immersion in your discipline.”

GRADUATE NURSING PROGRAM TRAINEESHIPS/ FY 07

Margaret Flatt, Professor of Nursing, received $32,190 from HHS: Health Resources and Services Administration for the Graduate Nursing Program Traineeships. The overall goal of the project was to provide traineeships awards to eligible students enrolled in the Master of Science in the Nursing program at SVSU, preparing registered professional nurses for leadership roles or advanced nursing practice.
