ALCOHOL MARKETING AND YOUTH DRINKING (R01) • NATIONAL INSTITUTES OF HEALTH
This FOA issued by the National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA), National Institutes of Health (NIH), encourages grant applications from institutions/organizations that propose to investigate the factors that mediate and moderate the impact of alcohol advertising and other alcohol promotions on youth drinking. Research suggests that alcohol advertisements and other alcohol promotions impact the attitudes and beliefs of young people regarding alcohol use. Studies examining simple correlations between exposure to alcohol advertisements and other promotions and rates of drinking are of less interest than those examining cause and effect relationships and exploring the specific mechanisms by which advertisements and promotions might affect drinking and related outcomes. See http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/pa-files/PA-11-015.html for details.

Application Deadline: May 8, 2014

Agriculture Program Development • FY 11
Deborah Huntley, College of Science Engineering and Technology Dean, was awarded $300,000 from the Michigan Department of Education for the Agricultural Program Development Grant. The goal of this project was to develop a new agricultural education degree program to provide students interested in that field with additional options. Part of this project included working with Michigan State University on the ‘2+2’ program between SVSU and MSU’s College of Agriculture and Natural Resources. Three new courses were developed at SVSU as a result of this program: Fundamentals of Soil Science, Decision-making in the Agri-food System, and Farm Management, which all transfer to MSU. The additional programs at SVSU for agriculture will benefit students by providing access to a wider range of students, small classes, a more rural environment, and lower tuition costs.

International Academic Partnership Program • FY 11
Mark Potts, Attorney-In-Residence for the College of Business and Management, was awarded $1,534 from the Department of Education for the FIPSE-sponsored International Academic Partnership Program. Ten U.S institutions were selected for this program, which consisted of an integration series of training activities, focused on implementing and sustaining partnerships with institutions in China, and a study tour to China in spring 2011 to meet with potential partner campuses. The anticipated outcomes of this project included communicating the value of creating long term relationships with institutions in China to SVSU faculty, administration, and to the community, working with the community to learn the needs of the region regarding internationalization, and leveraging existing relationships to build institutional partnerships with China.

2 Centuries, 3 Decades, 28 Works by Charles McGee Exhibition • FY 11
Marilyn Wheaton, Director of the Marshal M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum, was awarded $5,000 from the Saginaw Community Foundation for the exhibit “2 Centuries, 3 Decades, 28 Works by Charles McGee.” The Marshall M. Fredericks Sculpture Museum hosted this exhibit from June 4 to September 24, 2011. Over those four months, the exhibition attracted 3,147 visitors from the Great Lakes Bay Region and even residents from outside of Michigan. One hundred and twenty-three local high school students and 98 SVSU students attended gallery talks by Charles McGee at the Museum on September 14, 2011. This project was also supported by the Bay Area Community Foundation and the Midland Area Community Foundation.

simSchool Modules Project • FY 11
Anne Tapp, Professor of Teacher Education, was awarded $38,600 from the Association for the Advancement of Computers in Education for the simSchool Modules Project. The purpose of this technology project was for creating open source educational materials aimed at increasing recruitment and retention of low-income, high risk students into teaching. As part of this project 15 months of free online access to a full working version of the simSchool was available for up to 600 users, free access to unlimited copies of research and learning materials on the simSchool EDITlib web site, authorship in a peer-reviewed journal special edition, and peer editorship for the special edition were available. This project includes a partnership with the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation and various universities around the United States.

Foreign Language Teaching Assistant (FLTA) Host Institutions • FY 11
Barbara Cohen, Coordinator of the Language Lab and Media Center, received a Fulbright Foreign Language Teaching Assistant Host Institution grant. Ms. Sommaya Alaya, from the country of Jordan, joined our faculty for the 2011-2012 academic year to share her knowledge of the Arabic language and culture with our students and faculty.
UPCOMING FUNDING

SVSU COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT FAMILY BUSINESS RESEARCH GRANT
Application Deadline: March 15, 2014—Because the deadline falls on the weekend, due date is Monday, March 17, 2014
Given the significance of family business to the region, the College of Business and Management seeks to increase the breadth and depth of our collective knowledge on family business issues and strengthen the SVSU brand within the larger family business community and the broader academic community. Grants will be awarded to research teams. Team members must be either faculty, endowed chairs, or staff within the College of Business and Management and outside collaborations as determined by project need. The team must have at least one faculty member. Preference is given to teams that help faculty achieve and maintain academic qualification status. Anticipated awards will range from $8,000-$15,000/team for up to two years.
