Pioneer Hall

Pioneer Hall was named in recognition of the visionaries who founded the University. Originally constructed in 1978 it received a major makeover and addition in 2007. Pioneer Hall was the first LEED certified building on campus. It is home to the College of Science, Engineering & Technology.

Pioneer Hall Building Data

Total square feet: 76,282

Original Construction

- Constructed in: 1978

- • 45,732 Sq. ft.

- Architect: Prine Toshach Associates, Inc.

- Designer: Daniel Toshach

- General Contractor: Charles C. Engelhardt Construction

Addition

- Addition Construction: 2007

- 30,550 Sq. ft.

- Architect: Wigen Tincknell Meyer & Associates, Inc.

- Designer: Thomas Raey

- Construction Manager: Spence Brothers

Please note: Information is subject to change.