On your 2009-2010 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you marked that you were not going to file a federal income tax return for 2008. The information you provided on the FAFSA indicates that you may be required to file a tax return based on your income.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Please review your records and the tables below.
2. If you are required to file taxes, the SVSU Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid cannot process any awards for you until a return has been filed and a copy has been provided to the office.
3. If you were not required to file a return, please review the statement at the bottom and check the box for certification.
4. Sign and date this form, and return it to the SVSU Office of Scholarships and Financial Aid.

2008 Filing Requirements for Dependents

If your parents (or someone else) can claim you as a dependent, and any of the situations below apply to you, you must file a return. Earned income includes salaries, wages, tips, and professional fees. It also includes taxable scholarship and fellowship grants. Unearned income includes investment-type income such as taxable interest, ordinary dividends, and capital gain distributions. It also includes unemployment compensation, taxable social security benefits, pensions, annuities, and distributions of unearned income from a trust. Gross income is the total of your earned and unearned income.

If you were not age 65 or older or blind, you must file a return if any of the following apply:

- Your unearned income was more than $900.
- Your earned income was more than $5,450
- Your gross income was more than the larger of:
 - $900, or
 - Your earned income (up to $5,150) plus $300.

Certification:

I certify that my tax filing status is single, someone else cannot claim me as a dependent, and my gross income was less than $8,950.
