

In case you needed further proof that the human race is doomed through stupidity, here are some actual label instructions on consumer products:

On a Sears hair-dryer:

"Do not use while sleeping."

(Darn, and that's the only time I have to work on my hair.)

On a bag of Fritos:

"..You could be a winner! No purchase necessary. Details inside."

(The shoplifter special?)

On a bar of Dial soap:

"Directions: Use like regular soap."

(And that would be how???....)

On some Swanson frozen dinners:

"Serving suggestion: Defrost."

(But, it's "just" a suggestion.)

On Tesco's Tiramisu dessert (printed on bottom):

"Do not turn upside down."

(Well...duh, a bit late, huh!)

On Marks & Spencer Bread Pudding:

"Product will be hot after heating."

(...and you thought????....)

On packaging for a Rowenta iron:

"Do not iron clothes on body."

(But wouldn't this save me more time?)

On Boot's Children Cough Medicine:

"Do not drive a car or operate machinery after taking this medication."

(We could do a lot to reduce the rate of construction accidents if we could just get those 5-year-olds with head colds off those forklifts.)

On Nytol Sleep Aid:

"Warning: May cause drowsiness."

(And...I'm taking this because???....)

On most brands of Christmas lights:

"For indoor or outdoor use only."

(As opposed to...what?)

On a Japanese food processor:

"Not to be used for the other use."

(Now, somebody out there, help me on this. I'm a bit curious.)

On Sunbury's peanuts:

"Warning: contains nuts."

(Talk about a news flash.)

On an American Airlines packet of nuts:

"Instructions: Open packet, eat nuts."

(Step 3: maybe, uh...fly Delta?)

On a child's superman costume:

"Wearing of this garment does not enable you to fly."

(I don't blame the company. I blame the parents for this one.)

On a Swedish chain saw:

"Do not attempt to stop chain with your hands."

(Oh! Was there a lot of this happening somewhere?)

On a Korean kitchen knife:

"Warning: Keep out of children."

(Then the knife cannot be used for disciplinary purposes?)
