Use quotes for phrase searching. Improves relevance.

Use these keywords to find research based articles. Or is used to expand results and goes between similar terms.

Limit to peer reviewed journals when required.

The ERIC database has both journal articles and ERIC Documents.
Some documents/articles are available from ERIC

Look for the full text icons indicating the article is available for viewing

Use the “Find Text” button to try and locate article in another library database