

THE CARDINAL PLAN FOR: COMMUNICATION

A plan for a successful college experience.

	FIRST YEAR	SECOND YEAR	THIRD YEAR	FOURTH YEAR
COURSEWORK	Take Comm 105A Fundamentals of Communication Meet with an advisor in the Academic Advising Center	Take Comm 270 Communication in Marketplace and Media Take one additional course in Communication Select a minor	Complete 15-18 credits in Communication Meet with a Communication professor Complete general education courses	Complete 15-18 credits in Communication Meet with a Communication Professor Complete selected minor
GLOBAL VIEWS	Attend an intercultural event on campus	Attend a study abroad fair and another cultural event on campus	Take an upper level course in communication that examines global issues	Attend global research presentations or events on campus
COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT	Attend arts and cultural events in the community	Attend arts and cultural events in the community	Participate in a service learning project and or volunteer in the community	Participate in a service learning project and or volunteer in the community
CAMPUS ENGAGEMENT	Join a registered student organization (RSO) Visit a Communication professor	Participate in a communication related event on campus Visit a Communication professor	Join a professional communication organization on campus	Seek student leadership positions on campus
CAREER PREPARATION	Learn about Career Services Attend Career Night for Communication majors and minors	Register with Career Services	Attend a Career Services workshop Attend the Summer Internship Career Fair Explore graduate school	Attend the University-wide Career Fair

BEYOND GRADUATION

Graduates in communication enter a wide variety of career paths.

Many go into public relations and media related professions. Others enter management, marketing, and sales.

Some graduates advance their careers in the nonprofit sector.

The diversity of career opportunities is the asset of majoring in communication.

