Greetings, future Cardinals,

SVSU's College of Arts and Behavioral Sciences is the largest and most diverse college on campus. Our programs span majors and minors in art, communication, criminal justice, English, geography, history, modern foreign languages, music, philosophy, political science, psychology, rhetoric and professional writing, sociology and theatre. Our faculty collaborate with students to cultivate foundational knowledge, skills and critical thinking, ensuring success in an evolving world.

Your journey involves close collaboration with faculty from both your major and your general education program. Our educators enrich artistic appreciation, broaden world perspectives, enhance quantitative literacies and sharpen communication abilities. Their expertise and dedication make learning engaging and impactful.

Carlos Ramet, Ph.D.
Associate Dean
College of Arts and Behavioral Sciences

Beyond class, ABS emphasizes hands-on experiences to align with student learning goals. Internships prepare you for careers and advanced studies, while personalized projects with faculty mentors enrich academic pursuits. Exploring abroad and involvement in art exhibitions, competitions, the Model United Nations, forensics team, and more, amplify your résumé and personal growth.

Art exhibitions, music and theatre performances — featuring students and renowned visiting artists — offer creative enrichment. Public lectures and student organizations bolster your networks. These opportunities enhance your global citizenship.

As you embark on your ABS journey, anticipate an engaging, exhilarating and fulfilling experience. Stand out in the workforce by embracing these avenues for growth and enrichment. Have questions? Feel free to contact us by email or at (989) 964-4062.

We look forward to seeing you at SVSU!

Research within any major, any year

At SVSU, students in any academic program may participate in the Undergraduate Research Program starting their freshman year. Enhance your learning and further your education by exploring opportunities to engage in grant-funded undergraduate research. Lead your own project or work alongside supportive faculty. Your research can go far — get published in academic journals or present at international conferences. You can do this!

Do you have questions about Arts & Behavioral Sciences academic programs and pathways? SVSU faculty members are here for you.
